PETITION FOR CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT OF RESPONSE TO CIR 1.1

Pursuant to Chapter 2, Section 30 (Confidentiality of Information) of the Wyoming Public Service Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure, Cheyenne Light, Fuel and Power Company, d/b/a Black Hills Energy (“Cheyenne Light”) respectfully requests that the Wyoming Public Service Commission (“Commission”) issue an order granting confidential treatment for Response to CIR 1.1.

A. Statutory Support in Favor of Confidentiality Protection

W.S. § 16-4-203 provides for the right of inspection, grounds for denial, access of news media and orders permitting or restricting disclosure exceptions. This statute provides the legal basis for protection from disclosure of confidential information submitted by a party to a governmental agency (“Custodian”). W.S. § 16-4-203(d)(v) identifies categories of records that are exempt from public disclosure: “[t]rade secrets, privileged information and confidential commercial, financial, geological or geophysical data furnished by or obtained from any person.”

B. Rule and Regulatory Support in Favor of Confidentiality Protection

The Commission’s rules and regulations also provide for the protection of confidential data submitted to the Commission. Chapter 2, Section 30 of the Commission rules and regulations provides as follows:

Upon petition, and for good cause shown, the Commission shall deem confidential any information filed with the Commission or in the custody of the Commission or staff which is shown to be of the nature described in Wyoming Statute § 16-4-203(a), (b), (d), or (g). All information for which confidential treatment is requested shall be treated as confidential until the Commission rules whether, and to what extent, the information shall be given confidential treatment.

The information contained in the Response to CIR 1.1 contains confidential commercial and financial data which fits squarely within the protection provided under Chapter 2, Section 30.

C. Relevant Case Law Support in Favor of Confidential Protection.

In Sublette County Rural Health Care Dist. v. Miley, 942 P.2d 1101 (Wyo. July 18, 1997)(WL 401323) (hereafter referred to as Sublette County), the Wyoming Supreme Court addressed confidential commercial data. In Sublette County the Wyoming Supreme Court looked to federal law under the Freedom of Information Act. Id. The Court noted the parallel language of Wyoming's statute and the federal statute, and found it is appropriate for the Court to examine persuasive authority, particularly pertinent federal cases and adopted the two-factor test as set forth in National Parks and Conservation Ass'n v. Morton, 498 F.2d 765 (D.C.Cir.1974). The National Parks and Conservation Ass'n, two-factor test protects information from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act when the information is likely to either: (1) impair the government's future ability to obtain necessary information; or (2) cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the persons providing the information. National Parks, 498 F.2d at 770.

A review of Commission decisions also demonstrates that Petitions for Confidential Treatment are granted for a variety of reasons, including protection of commercial data.¹ In this petition, Cheyenne Light is seeking protection of commercial and financial data included in the Confidential Response to CIR 1.1.

D. Required Information

The support for confidential treatment is as follows:

Confidential Response to CIR 1.1:

Cheyenne Light requests that this information receive confidential treatment as it contains customer specific information, is not information disclosed publicly, and disclosure could negatively impact the business and operations of customers.

For the reasons stated herein, Cheyenne Light respectfully requests the Commission enter an order pursuant to Chapter 2, Section 30 prohibiting the disclosure of the designated confidential information identified herein. In the event written notice of an intent to disclose is provided, Cheyenne Light requests the opportunity for a hearing prior to disclosure at which Cheyenne Light can defend the confidentiality of the information.

In order to facilitate its ongoing regulatory responsibility, the Commission may retain this confidential information subject to Chapter 2, Section 30(b)(iv).
