3. The Natural Resources Defense Council is a nonprofit environmental advocacy organization incorporated in New York. It represents the interests of more than 2.4 million members and supports and approximately 10,000 dues-paying members in Virginia. NRDC's central purpose is to safeguard the integrity of the elements that sustain life—air, land and water—and to defend endangered natural places. To those ends, NRDC has advocated for deep cuts to carbon emissions and for clean energy solutions that will lower consumer energy bills, create jobs, and build Virginia's economy. The mailing address for NRDC's Virginia operations is:

4. NRDC represents the interests of its Virginia members, many of whom are retail customers of Virginia Electric and Power Company (the Company), on a variety of energy and environmental issues. Both in its individual capacity and as a representative of its members, NRDC has participated in prior cases before the Commission that address, among other things, the Company's prior integrated resource plans, its demand-side management offerings, and its electric vehicle programs.
5. Through pre-filed testimony, at hearing, and/or by written filings, the Sierra Club and NRDC will jointly address whether the Company's IRP is "reasonable and in the public interest," as required by Virginia Code § 56-599 C. To that end, the Sierra Club and NRDC may address the reasonableness of the Company's load forecast; the costs and/or benefits of energy efficiency and renewable energy resources as compared to the Company's resource proposals; the costs and/or risks associated with those proposed resources; the effect of those proposed resources on the environment; and whether and how the Company's IRP complies with the Virginia Clean Economy Act, anticipated federal regulations, and/or prior Commission directives. The Sierra Club and NRDC further reserve the right to address other issues raised in the IRP or by other participants in the proceeding.

Dated: January 16, 2025

Respectfully submitted,

Evan Dimond Johns
