MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

---

I. INTRODUCTION

In accordance with Ohio Revised Code (“R.C.”) Chapter 4906 and Ohio Adm.Code Chapter 4906-4, the Applicant filed an application for a certificate to construct and operate a 120-megawatt alternating current (“MW”) behind-the-meter natural gas fired power generation facility (“Project”) in New Albany, Licking County, Ohio (the “Application”) on April 23, 2025. The Applicant has filed, this same day, a Supplement to the Application. Included in the materials supporting the Supplement are portions of a documents considered trade secret and confidential. Ohio Adm.Code 4906-2-21 provides that the Applicant may file a motion for protective order to protect such information. Accordingly, the Applicant requests a protective order covering the portions of the Attachment 2 which contains the certificate and policy numbers. Therefore, the Applicant has submitted portions of Attachment 2 under seal to maintain confidentiality.

II. PROJECT BACKGROUND

The Applicant is proposing construct and operate a 120-MW behind-the-meter, natural gas fired, electric generating facility located on an industrial site at 9850 Innovation Campus Way, New Albany, Licking County, Ohio. The general purpose of the facility is to provide a reliable and efficient behind-the-meter prime power source to meet the operational needs of a data center located on the same site. Construction of the Project is anticipated to begin as early as the third quarter of 2025, resulting in commercial operations as early as in the first quarter of 2026.

III. LEGAL AUTHORITY

The Ohio Adm.Code expressly permits the Board or the administrative law judge (“ALJ”) assigned to the case to protect the confidentiality of certain information filed with the Board’s

Docketing Division. See Ohio Adm.Code 4906-2-21. In particular, Ohio Adm.Code 4906-2-21(D) provides that:

“[u]pon motion of any party or person filing a document with the board’s docketing division relative to a case before the board, the board or the [ALJ] assigned to the case may issue any order which is necessary to protect the confidentiality of information contained in the document, to the extent that state or federal law prohibits release of the information, including where it is determined that both of the following criteria are met: The information is deemed by the board or [ALJ] assigned to the case to constitute a trade secret under Ohio law, and where non-disclosure of the information is not inconsistent with the purpose of Title 49 of the Revised Code.”

Here, nondisclosure of the information requested to be kept confidential will in no way impair the purposes of R.C. Title 49. The Board and its staff already have full access to the information in order to fulfill the Board’s statutory obligations. Thus, the question becomes whether the confidential information may be considered a “trade secret” under Ohio law.

The definition of a “trade secret” is set forth in Ohio’s Uniform Trade Secrets Act, which states:

“Trade secret” means information, including the whole or any portion or phase of any scientific or technical information, design, process, procedure, formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, or improvement, or any business information or plans, financial information or listing of names, addresses, or telephone numbers, that satisfies both of the following:

- (1) It derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use.
- (2) It is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

R.C. Section 1333.61(D).

Courts of other jurisdictions have held that a public utilities commission has the authority to protect trade secrets of companies subject to its jurisdiction. New York Tel. Co. v. Pub. Serv. Comm., 56 N.Y. 2d 213 (1982). In fact, the existence of a state trade secret statute creates a duty of the public utilities commission to protect them. Id. Recognizing this duty, the Board has issued orders protecting trade secrets in numerous proceedings. See, e.g., In re Application of Carroll Co. Energy, LLC, Case No. 13-1752-EL-BGN, Entry (Jan. 6, 2014); In re Application of North Coast Gas Transmission, LLC, Case No. 14-1754-GA-BLN, Entry (Dec. 30, 2014); In re Application of Hardin Solar Energy, LLC, Case No. 17-773-EL-BGN, Entry (Feb. 20, 2018); In re Application of Vinton Solar Energy, LLC, Case No. 17-774-EL-BGN, Opinion and Order (Sept. 20, 2018); In re Application of Paulding Wind Farm IV LLC, Case No. 18-91-EL-BGN, Opinion and Order (Feb. 21, 2019); In re Application of Cadence Solar Energy LLC, Case No. 17-774-EL-BGN, Entry (Feb. 18, 2021).

In State ex rel. The Plain Dealer v. Ohio Dept. of Ins., 80 Ohio St.3d 513 (1997), the Ohio Supreme Court adopted the six factor test set forth in Pyromatics, Inc. v. Petruziello, 7 Ohio App.3d 131, 134-135 (1983), which served to further define “trade secrets” under Ohio law. The six factors to be considered in recognizing a trade secret are:

- (1) The extent to which the information is known outside the business,
- (2) the extent to which it is known to those inside the business, i.e., by the employees,
- (3) the precautions taken by the holder of the trade secret to guard the secrecy of the information,
- (4) the savings effected and the value to the holder in having the information as against competitors,
- (5) the amount of effort or money expended in obtaining and developing the information, and
- (6) the amount of time and expense it would take for others to acquire and duplicate the information.

Note that the Board is not necessarily limited to protecting information meeting the precise definition of “trade secret.” The Board may issue a protective order providing that a “trade secret or other confidential research, development, commercial, or other information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a designated way.” Ohio Adm.Code 4906-2-21(A)(7) (emphasis added). As will be discussed in the next section, the information the Applicant seeks to protect should be considered trade secret. In addition, all of the confidential and sensitive information contained in the Certificate, and described in this motion and memorandum in support, would be considered “confidential research, development, commercial, or other” information warranting protection from the public record, pursuant to the Ohio Adm.Code.

IV. APPLICATION OF “TRADE SECRET” FACTORS

The Board has recognized that the certificate numbers and policy numbers contained in certificates of liability insurance should be granted protective treatment under the rules and regulations. See In re Application of Hardin Solar Energy LLC, Case No. 17-773-EL-BGN, Entry (Feb. 20, 2018); In re Application of Vinton Solar Energy LLC, Case No. 17-774-EL-BGN, Opinion and Order (Sept. 20, 2018); In re Application of Atlanta Farms Solar Project, LLC, Case No. 19-1880-EL-BGN, Entry (Feb. 25, 2020); In re Application of Cadence Solar Energy LLC, Case No. 20-1677-EL-BGN, Entry (Feb. 18, 2021). The certificate numbers and policy numbers contained in Attachment 2 are highly confidential and closely held by the Applicant. Therefore, those portions of the Attachment 2 are being submitted under seal to maintain their confidentiality. Further, the Applicant notes that disclosure of this information is unlikely to assist the Board in carrying out its duties, especially since the Board and its staff can view unredacted versions placed under seal. Disclosure would similarly not serve any other public policy.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Applicant requests that the Board or the ALJ grant its motion for a protective order to maintain the information described above as confidential and not subject to public disclosure.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Christine M.T. Pirik
