Year of the Rabbit

Sweet Silver Rabbit

The 2023 issue of the Lunar Collection will celebrate the 7th anniversary of the series. Like in past years, there will be three distinct and highly collectible releases. The first is struck in one ounce of fine silver and shows the sweet silver rabbit as a three-dimensional numismatic sculpture. Have a look on its cute face and the floppy ear. It will immediately make you smile. It is minted in a way that allows it to stand freely on its own which makes it an ideal display and conversation piece. The highly detailed five gram silver banknote shows wonderfully the contrast between the different silver finishes as well as the brilliant color that has been expertly applied. Lastly, the rabbit is proudly displayed on a half gram gold proof.

Silver Ghost

Over the years, CIT has become well known for its silver charm series. These 3D 1 oz pure silver coins utilize smartminting® technology to appear sculpted even though they are struck just like standard coins. This year's Silver Ghost brings life to our childhood memories. Countless of children have donned the white bed sheets and said "boo!" in an attempt to scare their parents and friends. Of course, who could ever forget the friendly ghost that is the main character in cartoons and product promotions. On the scarier side, ghosts have always been the main subject of paranormal studies and talking to the dead. No matter what your memory is, you will love this amazing ghost!

Pegasos

Pegasus, or Pegasos as he was called by the Greeks, was a winged horse, born from the liaison of the sea-god Poseidon and the beautiful Medusa. It is one of the most recognized creatures in Greek mythology. CIT now transfers this iconic symbol onto a modern coin. By using the possibilities of the enhanced smart-minting® technology it combines the ancient design e.g. the uneven rim with a stunning ultra-high relief. Like the predecessors Tortoise and Athena's Owl Pegasos is a worthy and eye catching modern twist of a numismatic legend. For the first time ever CIT releases a smartminting® gold coin in ultra-high relief with antique finish which supports the ancient look highlighting all details. In addition to the 1 oz gold, there is also a half gram gold version struck in silk finish which provides a wonderful companion piece.

Small Gold

Athena's Owl, Tortoise, Pegasus

Following the successful launch of the silver editions in 2020/21 now we release the complementary gold versions of the Athenian Owl and the Tortoise. The Athenian Owl tetradrachm is arguably the most popular and recognized ancient coin. Because of its strong connection with the goddess Athena, the owl evolved into the Athenians' own icon and graced a large variety of coins. The turtle was used during ancient Greek times as a monetary symbol and was struck on coins that were first made on the island of Aegina in the south of Greece. Today, the original ancient turtle coins are highly prized and extremely valuable. All three gram coins are struck in silk finish with incredible details and pay tribute to the ancient coins of the past.
