Definitions

- "Number of Students Who Began the Program" means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who canceled during the cancellation period.
- "Students Available for Graduation" is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- "Number of On-time Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- "On-time Completion Rate" is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- "150% Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- "150% Completion Rate" is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- "Graduates Available for Employment" means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- "Graduates unavailable for employment" means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education at an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- "Graduates Employed in the Field" means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

- "Placement Rate Employed in the Field" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- "Number of Graduates Taking Exam" is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- "First Available Exam Date" is the date for the first available exam after a student "completed a program."
- "Passage Rate" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- "Salary" is as reported by a graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL, WITHDRAW, AND REFUND POLICY

- A. A student may request a Leave of Absence (LOA) at any time. An LOA is a temporary, time-limited pause in enrollment that must be requested by the student and approved by the institution and does not constitute a withdrawal. If the student does not request an extension of the current LOA or does not return to classes after an approved LOA ends, administrative withdrawal may occur in accordance with this Enrollment Agreement. During an approved LOA, the student's enrollment agreement remains active; however, state fees, licensing fees, examination fees, and other third-party fees are subject to change. If any of these fees increase during the LOA period, the student is responsible for paying any applicable difference upon return to the program. The e-book provided as study material is available for one (1) year from the date the student activates access. If access expires during a Leave of Absence (LOA) or before program completion, the student will be required to pay the applicable reactivation fee to restore access.
- B. Cancellation requests must be submitted in writing to the school administrative office either by email at studentservices@contractorstest.com or by completing the school's exit survey. The right to cancel must be exercised in accordance with the timeline described in Section

C below. Completion of the exit survey helps improve the quality of education and, when submitted, constitutes written notice of cancellation.

- C. Students have the right to cancel their enrollment up to the first class session or within seven (7) business days after enrollment, whichever is later. Upon timely cancellation, the institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a non-refundable registration fee of $250. Any refund due will be issued to the third-party payer of record, not to the student. All refunds due to the third party payer under this section shall be issued within 45 calendar days of receipt of a written cancellation notice. The student will receive written documentation specifying the amount of the refund to the third party payer, the method of calculating the refund to the third party payer, the date the refund to the third party payer was made, and the name and address of the entity to which the refund was sent.
- D. A student may withdraw from the program at any time after the cancellation period by submitting written notice either by email to studentservices@contractorstest.com or by completing the school's exit survey. The withdrawal date will be the date the institution receives the written notice.
- E. If a student fails to attend scheduled classes and does not submit a written notice of withdrawal, the institution may administratively withdraw the student for nonattendance. At ContractorsTest, students who miss five (5) consecutive scheduled class sessions without an approved Leave Of Absence may be administratively withdrawn.
- F. When a student attends classes irregularly or withdraws from the program, tuition is earned only for classes that were scheduled on or before the student's last date of attendance. Refunds due after the withdrawal period are calculated on a pro rata basis, based on the portion of the program the student attended or was scheduled to attend prior to the withdrawal date. Any refund due will be issued to the third-party payer within 45 calendar days of the withdrawal date. The $250 registration fee is non-refundable.

Federal Student Loan Debt

Students at ContractorsTest are not eligible for federal student loans. This institution does not meet the U.S. Department of Education criteria that would allow its students to participate in federal student aid programs.
