5. If any one of the items set forth below applies to a User, the Society may immediately suspend the User's use of this Service without notice or compensation.
 - (a) In the event that the User breaches the contract with the Society with respect to this Service;
 - (b) In the event that the application for IMO-DCS certification is canceled;
 - (c) In the event of any delay of payment of an outstanding invoice with respect to this Service or IMO-DCS certification.
6. The Society is prohibited from disclosing or leaking to any third party any confidential information related to the Users' technology or management practices known through this Service; provided, however, that this Article does not apply
 - (a) if the Society obtains prior consent from the Users,
 - (b) if the disclosure is based on laws and regulations,
 - (c) if there is an urgent need, such as a marine accident, or
 - (d) if the disclosure is required by court order, legal proceedings or is requested by a public organization, such as a national government having valid authorities.
7. The Society may amend these Terms and Conditions at any time it deems necessary, without prior notice to the Users. However, if the Users will be significantly affected by the amendment of these Terms and Conditions, the Society shall inform them thereof by issuing a notice with a reasonable notice period. Notices regarding amendments to the Terms and Conditions shall be posted on the website of this Service, so please visit the page accordingly.
