IMPORTANT — NOT LEGAL ADVICE

This report compiles publicly-available statutes, regulations, and county zoning rules into a research reference. It is not legal advice and is provided without warranty as to accuracy, completeness, or current applicability.

Cottage food law changes frequently. Counties may amend zoning, health departments may issue new permits, and state legislatures may update statutes after the publication date shown above.

Always verify rules directly with your state department of health/agriculture and your county health and planning offices before relying on them for any business or regulatory decision. Consult a licensed attorney for advice specific to your situation.

RESEARCH NOTES

Kansas is a Great-tier state with no sales cap and minimal barriers. Hodgeman County is very small and rural (pop. ~1,820). No county-specific cottage food or home occupation ordinance found in search. State cottage food law (K.S.A. §65-657) is the primary framework. County zoning likely permissive for home-based food businesses in agricultural and rural residential zones.
