IMPORTANT — NOT LEGAL ADVICE

This report compiles publicly-available statutes, regulations, and county zoning rules into a research reference. It is not legal advice and is provided without warranty as to accuracy, completeness, or current applicability.

Cottage food law changes frequently. Counties may amend zoning, health departments may issue new permits, and state legislatures may update statutes after the publication date shown above.

Always verify rules directly with your state department of health/agriculture and your county health and planning offices before relying on them for any business or regulatory decision. Consult a licensed attorney for advice specific to your situation.

RESEARCH NOTES

Kings County is Brooklyn, one of the five NYC boroughs. All NYC boroughs are governed by NYC law and administered by DOHMH, not county-level health departments. The NY State Home Processor Exemption (1 NYCRR 276.4) is the operative cottage food framework. NYC does not have a separate cottage food ordinance. The exemption prohibits many items that other states allow including no-bake items, pickles, sauces, buttercream frostings, and requires all products to have a pathogen kill step (must be baked). The wholesale allowance to in-state retail/restaurant is a notable feature compared to most states.
