RESEARCH NOTES

Oklahoma Homemade Food Freedom Act (HB 1032, 2021) applies statewide. Caddo County is a predominantly rural county. No county-level zoning ordinance or cottage food overlay identified for unincorporated areas. The City of Anadarko and any incorporated municipalities within the county have their own municipal zoning requirements that supersede county rules within city limits. State law expressly prohibits county ordinances from conflicting with or restricting the HFFA (2 O.S. §5-4.6). \ $75,000 annual sales cap. TCS foods allowed with food safety training (ServSafe or equivalent).

State context — Oklahoma cottage food law

Caddo County's rules sit on top of Oklahoma's state cottage food framework. The state law sets the floor — counties can add but cannot remove protections.

INDIRECT SALES

Limited (see notes) — Sales are permitted on site, by delivery, at farmers markets, through cooperatives, and through membership-based buying clubs. The Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Food, and Forestry may promulgate rules to allow sales at other locations or by other means. County ordinances may regulate but may not conflict with or impede the Act. For TCS foods, the producer must complete an approved food safety training (e.g., ServSafe Food Handler Training, max 8 hours, available online) before selling.
