

Paid Internships & Scholarships for First Nations Students

CareerTrackers is a national not-for-profit organisation advancing careers, leadership and excellence for First Nations students.

We partner with universities, industry and community to provide paid internships, accelerating education and graduate outcomes.

How Do Students Benefit?

Paid Internships

12-week placements across key focus industries: business, law, engineering, IT, science and more.

Employer Partnerships

Over 150 of the biggest organisations in Australia are active partners, offering opportunities to our students.

Indigenous Cadetship Scholarship

Student participants of our program are also potentially eligible for over $13,000 annually, plus a $1,000 book allowance.

Work-integrated Learning

Aligning with your Indigenous Education Strategy, students apply theoretical knowledge in professional settings, improving their employability.

Improved Graduate Outcomes

Internships are designed to be a talent pipeline for organisations, with relevant industry exposure, skills and capabilities developed.

Hear From Some of Our Students

95%
