CLAYTIS Textured Catch All Tray

This tray has an uneven, soft edge and a textured outside, almost like something shaped by hand. The inside stays smooth, so small items sit nicely and don’t wobble.

It’s the kind of tray you leave near the door for keys, on a nightstand for jewelry, or on a shelf just because it looks good there.

Not perfectly round. Not perfectly symmetrical.
That’s the point.

It’s simple, practical, and easy to print.
