

Meta Arts

All things CULTURE..

We are..

Meta Arts is a culture start-up based in Bengaluru, India. Our aim as an arts production entity is to foster, further and facilitate longstanding opportunities and impactful experiences in music, theatre and dance from India and the world

Our vision

We aspire to curate artistic responses, reimagine cultural skills development and devise democratic access of the arts across India.

Our mission

Collaboration sits at the heart of our work in Meta Arts. Our arts production initiatives are driven 100% through the ecosystem of partners comprising artists, cultural agencies, funders and audiences who join-up to make this narrative of cultural discourse long-term, friendly and sustainable

Access to networks

Meta Arts was set-up in June 2020 by Arnab Banerjee

Arnab is an Arts Manager, who's worked with cultural, performing arts and grant making institutions for over 12 years. His work has allowed him to devise insight and connections across the culture and creative industries network of India comprising key personnel, venues, festivals and institutions

What we do?

At Meta Arts we can help you with touring of Indian and International performing arts showcases anywhere across India, offer curatorial advice on outreach activities and logistical support.

offering consultancies on projects and new initiatives in theatre, music, dance, films and arts administration.

produce international co-operation projects in performing arts.

programming digital cultural events and engagements in music, theatre and dance

Additionally,

Meta Arts is actively working to set up India's first performing arts incubator that aims to embed pedagogy and mentorship to support early career artists in devising new creations and further their artistic thinking.
