Frequently Asked Questions

What is a CUP? Certain uses may wish to locate in the Town of Jamestown and its area of jurisdiction which could adversely impact neighboring uses or the community as a whole. Due to the potential impacts of these uses, they must meet certain conditions to ensure that they do not adversely impact neighboring uses or the community as a whole. A Conditional Use Permit must be granted these uses in accordance with the procedures set forth in Article 7 of the Land Development Ordinance.

What is the process? Applicants submit an application for a CUP to the Planning Department by the second Monday of the month to meet the deadline for the following month's Planning Board meeting. Applications are then considered at a public hearing before the Planning Board which makes a recommendation for consideration by the Town Council.

How long does the process take? The process typically takes 2 to 3 months to complete from beginning to end. This time frame can vary if an application requires additional time for review by the Planning Board or Town Council.

What happens during a public hearing? All applications require two public hearings, one by the Planning Board and one by the Town Council. The NC General Statutes requires that a notice of public hearing be placed in the newspaper. Generally, all property owners within a 500 ft. radius of your property will receive a notice of the date, time and nature of the public hearing and are invited to attend to make public comments.

What can I expect during the meetings? At the time of your public hearing, the meeting chairperson will introduce the item by reading the case summary from the meeting agenda. The Chair will then ask town staff to provide a summary of the have the opportunity to present your project and respond to questions from Planning Board members and Interested parties in the audience.
