Frequently Asked Questions

What is a rezoning? A rezoning is required if the proposed use of your property is not permitted by right or with a Special Use Permit.

What is the process? Applicants submit an application for rezoning to the Planning Department by the second Monday of the month to meet the deadline for the following month's Planning Board meeting. Applications are then considered at a public hearing before the Planning Board which makes a recommendation for consideration by the Town Council.

How long does the process take? The process typically takes 2 to 3 months to complete from beginning to end. This time frame can vary if an application requires additional time for review by the Planning Board or Town Council.

What happens during a public hearing? All rezoning applications require two public hearings, one by the Planning Board and one by the Town Council. The NC General Statutes requires that a notice of public hearing be placed in the newspaper. Generally, all property owners within a 500 ft. radius of your property will receive a notice of the date, time and nature of the public hearing and are invited to attend to make public comments.

What can I expect during the meetings? At the time of your public hearing, the meeting chairperson will introduce the item by reading the case summary from the meeting agenda. The Chair will then ask town staff to provide a summary of the application. The applicant and those attendees in support and opposed to the project are then invited to speak.

Why is it important for the applicant to attend both public hearings?
During the public hearing, you (or your representative) will have the opportunity to present your project and respond to questions from Planning Board members and Interested parties in the audience.

Typical Timeline

Step 3. Your application is reviewed by town staff for completeness. Applicants are notified if there are any deficiencies.

Step 5. The Planning Board meeting is held on the 2nd Monday of every month.

Step 6. The Town Council public hearing is scheduled, generally, for the 3rd Tuesday in the following month.
