

Application Bobby G Awards
PRODUCTION SUPPORT FUND

The Randy Weeks Memorial Fund for the Bobby G Awards was established at the Denver Center for the Performing Arts in 2014 to support the advancement of musical theatre for Colorado high school students. Due to the generosity of Robert and Judi Newman, the DCPA is able to accept applications for The Production Support Fund during the 2021-22 Bobby G Season. This support fund offers up to $500.00 for any participating school to use for their production.

To be considered for the production support fund, please complete this application and return it to Claudia Carson ccarson@dcpa.org. DEADLINE: DECEMBER 20, 2021

PRODUCTION SUPPORT FUND

What should I know about the production fund?

- The Production fund is to help supplement any area of your production from set construction and materials, lighting equipment, sound rental, costume building supplies, to musical instruments and rentals. This fund is not intended to help pay outside artist fees.
- Up to $500.00 will be awarded for the 2021-22 School year. Based on the number of applications and the needs of each school, the fund may be dispersed to more than one school.
- The production fund is only for the Musical Theatre production that has registered for the Bobby G Awards.
- Please send in the application as soon as possible.

How do I apply?

Complete and send your application electronically in a Word compatible document to the Bobby G Program Coordinator ccarson@dcpa.org. After the application has been reviewed, the Program Coordinator will notify you.

All application requests are considered.

The questionnaire portion of this application is heavily weighted. This fund's purpose is to supply extra financial support to further enhance the quality and professionalism of the Musical Production.
