(PARK NEXT TO NATIONAL THEATER)

3
St. Urban Bell

Stop to admire the 7-ton tower bell situated right between the Urban Tower and the St. Elisabeth's Cathedral. This original bell (1557) was damaged by fire and reconstructed by Jiří Svoboda in 1989.

(URBAN TOWER)

(MAIN SQUARE)

4
Július Jakoby
(Juraj Bartusz)

Stop by this epic portrayal of an influential Košice-born painter, forever embedded in the downtown's pedestrian zone. Meet Július Jakoby's sculpture and take an unconventional selfie!

(ALŽBETINA ST)

5
Coat of Arms of Košice
(Arpád Račko)

The Coat of Arms of Košice is a truly special commemoration of the first coat of arms granted in Europe by King Louis I. in 1369, together with the original warrant. Admire its bronze representation in the romantic park by the Lower Gate.

(PARK BY THE LOWER GATE)

International Sculpture Symposium and its artworks

Stroll through the largest city park in Košice and admire the beauty and unconventional designs, such as Slovo by Dušan Zahoranský, or an extraordinary Pavilion by Dan Graham. Find here also some older sculptures from the International Sculpture Symposium held between 1967 and 1974.

(CITY PARK)

Radosť (Gyula Kosice)

Stop for a moment in front of Košice's Kunsthalle, the center for contemporary art, with a remarkable art piece by an Argentinian sculptor born in Košice. Gyula Košice is also considered a pioneer of the hydro-kinetic art.

(KUNSTHALLE/HALL OF ART)

(1 RUMANOVA ST)

8
Facade (Růžena Žertová)

A unique facade piece around the outer walls of the former Prior department store is one of the most distinctive architectural symbols of the city (1968). Admire the pyramid-shaped 3D concrete tiles, which endured not only the passing decades but also several reconstructions of the building.

(OD URBAN, 11 HLAVNÁ ST)

9
Sándor Márai
(Peter Gáspár)

Come and take a seat by the renowned novelist from Košice and his authentic replica, pondering in a cozy corner of the city, tucked away from Main Street. The chair next to him is reserved for a quiet and deep dialogue.

(SÁNDOR MÁRAI SQ)

10
Mosaic (Imrich Vanek)

Admire the precise use of colors and shapes of the abstract mosaic (1986) by the Slovak sculptor from Nové Zámky. Find his second piece above the escalators at the entrance to the Dargov Shopping Mall.

(OD DARGOV, 1 ŠTÚROVA ST)

(THE ENTRANCE FROM MAIN ST)

11
Fountain Klíčenie
(Mária Bartuszová)

Discover a unique sculpture piece by an author recognized in the prestigious Tate Gallery in London. The fountain Klíčenie (1986) behind the OD Dargov showcases her distinctive technique and the usage of compressed air.

(OD DARGOV, 1 ŠTÚROVA ST)

(ENTRANCE FROM ŠTÚROVA ST)

12
Odpočívajúca rodina V.
(Ján Mathé)

Take a rest by the colossal sculpture in the northern part of the city—this modernist fountain represents all the author's traditional motifs of family, fetus, and conception. Discover more of his beautiful pieces in the Museum Villa Studio Mathé.

(OC MIER)

(1 JÁN MATHÉ SQ)

13
Češúca sa VI.
(Ján Mathé)

Find Mathé's absolute masterpiece depicting his wife Eva in the days when the couple did not own a proper bathroom. This sculpture portrays a magical motif of a female body while bathing hair in the sink—all captured by the sensitive eyes of the beloved sculptor in the lovely park next to the Sever Polyclinic.

(75/37 KOMENSKÉHO ST)

14
Rodina (Vojtech Löffler)

Wander through the nearby areas of the Old Town and stop by the sculpture titled Rodina (Family) from 1966. Vojtech Löffler, the author of the piece with a museum dedicated to his memory, directly addresses the motifs of family and human bonding.

(PARK ANGELINUM)

15
Mosaic (Imrich Vanek)

A monumental and colorful mosaic with typical features and glaze of the sculptor in front of one of the most renowned hotels of the city. Take a closer look at the elaborate circular objects and intense, dark-red tones of this enormous mosaic from 1969.

(IN FRONT OF HOTEL YASMIN)

(TYRŠOVO NÁBŘEŽIE)

16
Murál BEZT & PENER

Set out for a tram ride on lines no. 6 and 9 along the Trieda SNP and discover an epic mural next to the Convention Center. The mural by Polish artists is a direct legacy of Košice being the European Capital of Culture in 2013 and the Open Mural Gallery project.
