

The Trinity V: The New Testament

Introduction

The Son in the New Testament

- Creator
- Eternal
- Omnipresent
- Omniscient
- Omnipotent
- Names
- Bestowance of divine righteousness and divine life
- The object of scripture
- The final judge
- The object of the Spirit's witness
- The command of salvation
- He receives worship
- He bestows the divine inheritance
- He reveals God
- His enemies

The Holy Spirit

- He's a person
- But divine
- He knows the depths of God (omniscience)
- He reveals God to Biblical Authors
- He bestows giftedness to serve God
- He creates guilt, repentance, and faith and rebirth or the New Covenant
- He raised Christ and will raise us
- He conceived Christ and anointed Him for ministry

Conclusion