PART 1

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

EXAMPLE

Your friends

- Do you prefer to have one particular friend or a group of friends? [Why?]
- What do you like doing most with your friend/s?
- Do you think it's important to keep in contact with friends you knew as a child? [Why/Why not?]
- What makes a friend into a good friend?

PART 2

Describe an important choice you had to make in your life.

You should say:

when you had to make this choice
what you had to choose between whether you made a good choice and explain how you felt when you were making this choice.

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.

You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.

You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

PART 3

Discussion topics:

Important choices

Example questions:

- What are the typical choices people make at different stages of their lives?
- Should important choices be made by parents rather than by young adults?
- Why do some people like to discuss choices with other people?

Choices in everyday life

Example questions:

- What kind of choices do people have to make in their everyday life?
- Why do some people choose to do the same things every day? Are there any disadvantages in this?
- Do you think that people today have more choices to make today than in the past?
