Fun with Jay

A 'Let's Read Together!' Book

They lost him on the display. He should stay hidden!

At midday, they went for dinner. They had to tell Jay there were no toads.

Kit and Sam helped Jay to visit them. He asked if he could play for the day.

He had so much fun but he could not stay. Jay said "I must go back to my planet."

After dinner it was Kit and Sam's art lesson. Jay got stuck with the crayons.

It was the end of the holiday. They took him to the classroom the next day.
