A Trip to Kanpur

A 'Let's Read Together!' Book

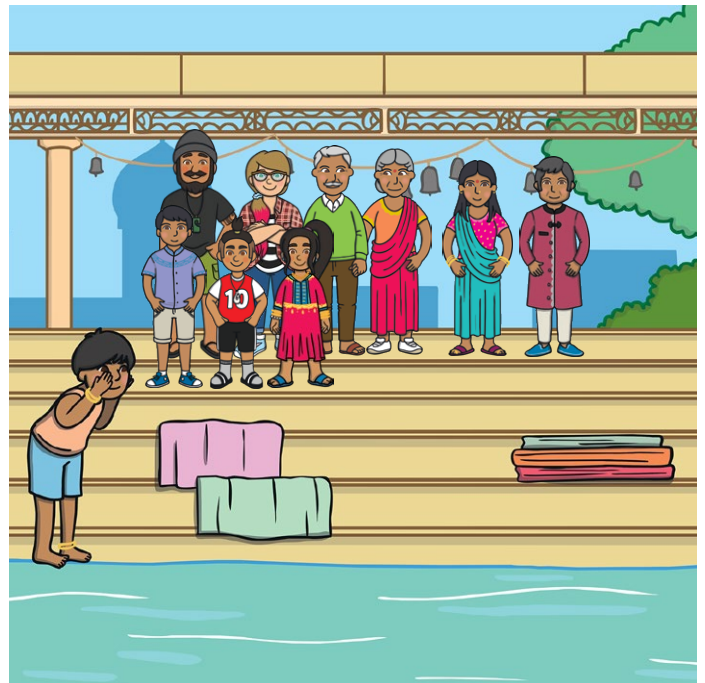

Ankit took us on some buses around Kanpur to see the sights. First, we went to the markets to get Sam some new dresses and bracelets.

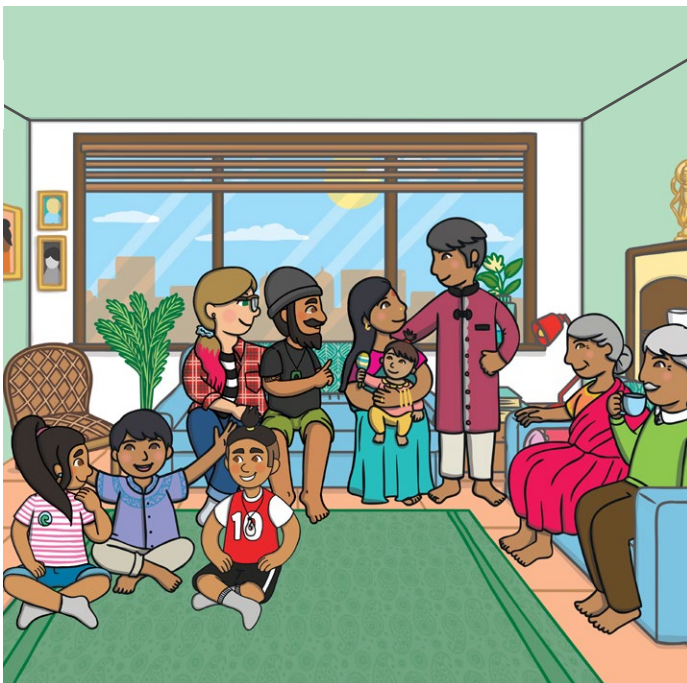

Then we went to a holy place where we saw shrines to some of the gods. When we came out, we ate something spicy called a samosa.

Dad got us some tickets to go and visit our friends in Kanpur. We were so happy and excited to get on the plane.

On our last day, we went to see the river and Grandma Dadi took us to the little house where she grew up. We will miss our friends but we will send letters and photos to them.

Next, we took one of the buses to a park. We were lucky we did not need our raincoats all day. When we went back home, we played with baby Diya and Grandpa Dada told us stories.

We took an auto-rickshaw to our friends' house. We were very pleased to see Aditi, Ravi, Ankit and baby Diya. Ankit could not wait to show us some of his home town.
