Wedding Fun!

A 'Let's Read Together!' Book

We met Curtis who is Sue's stepson. He looked a bit like Kit as he had a blue tie on, too.

We had fun in the garden hiding behind the statues. Then the band sang lots of jazz songs and people jived to it.

We all looked smart for Sue and Mike's wedding. When we got to the venue, many people were not there yet.

On our way home, Mum laughed when she spotted the wedding present between us. We forgot to bring it from the car into the venue!

We ate and jived so much that we were worn out! Dad laughed at us chilling with out our ties on.

We went into the garden and looked at all of the statues. There were loads of them!
