Kit and Sam's Animal Adventure

A 'Let's Read Together!' Book

After they had been around the zoo,
Kit and Sam used the magic map
to go and visit some wild elephants and dolphins.

They met a baby elephant who was an orphan. They had to feed him lots of different food because he was too small to get his own.

Kit and Sam had to complete a school project. Sam chose to do hers about dolphins but Kit was not sure about his. Luckily, Jake's dad, Philip, phoned to invite Kit and Sam to the zoo.

Kit and Sam did fantastic projects after their visit to the elephants and the dolphins. Mrs Tan loved their projects because their work had so much detail!

Then, they went on a boat to help with the dolphins. Kit took lots of photos and Sam held a microphone into the sea so that they could hear them chattering. Steph made graphs of what they had found out.

Philip took lots of photos of the elephants splashing water and of the dolphins being fed by the zookeeper. "I wish we could get closer," said Kit.
