

Lilly and the Tooth Fairy

Tomorrow was the school trip and Lilly was in bed trying to get to sleep. Her tooth was wobbly and she really wanted it to fall out. If it did, the tooth fairy could leave her some money!

But the tooth would not come out! Lilly tried to forget about it and fall asleep.

“Lilly...”

Lilly thought she heard someone. She opened her eyes.

“Hello, Lilly,” said a little fairy.

“Oh-my-goodness!” Lilly said.

“I didn’t mean to scare you,” the little fairy said. “My name is Pixie-Dust. I am here for your tooth.”

The little fairy looked like a tiny princess. She had small wings and a magic wand.

“I’m sorry but my tooth hasn’t come out yet,” Lilly said.

“Are you sure?” Pixie-Dust asked.

Lilly felt her pillow. There was something small and hard! “My tooth!” she said. “It came out!”

Pixie-Dust flew over and took the tooth. “Thank you,” she said. Then she waved her little wand.

Lilly and the Tooth Fairy

In the morning, Lilly felt her wobbly tooth. It was missing! She remembered a funny dream about a little tooth fairy. Then she felt something hard under her pillow.

It was a coin!

Lilly quickly got dressed. She couldn't wait for the school trip. Now she could buy something in the gift shop!

"Thank you," Lilly whispered, and somewhere in a far-off land, a little fairy smiled.

Lilly and the Tooth Fairy

Tomorrow was the school trip to the chocolate factory and Lilly was trying to get to sleep. Her tooth was wobbly and she really wanted it to fall out. If it did, the tooth fairy could leave her some money to buy a Choccy-Choc-Choc bar!

But the tooth would not come out! Lilly tried to forget about it and fall asleep.

“Lilly...”

Lilly thought she heard someone, so she opened her eyes.

“Hello, Lilly,” said a glowing little creature.

“Oh-my-goodness!” Lilly shrieked.

“I didn’t mean to scare you,” the little creature said. “My name is Pixie-Dust and I am here for your tooth.”

The little creature looked like a tiny princess. She had small wings, a wand and she was wearing a twinkly green dress.

“I am sorry,” Lilly said, “but my tooth hasn’t come out!” As she was talking, her tongue rolled across her wobbly tooth... but it wasn’t there! Lilly felt her pillow. There was something small and hard! “My tooth!” she squealed. “It did come out!”

Pixie-Dust flew over and took the tooth. “Thank you,” she said. Then she waved her little wand.

Lilly and the Tooth Fairy

Lilly was lying in bed trying to get to sleep. Tomorrow was the school trip to the chocolate factory. Lilly really wanted her first tooth to fall out. Then the tooth fairy could leave her some money to buy a Choccy-Choc-Choc bar!

But her tooth didn't want to come out. She closed her eyes and tried to fall asleep.

“Lilly...”

Lilly thought she heard someone, so she opened her eyes.

“Hello, Lilly,” said a glowing little creature.

“Oh-my-goodness!” Lilly shrieked.

“I didn't mean to scare you,” the little creature said. “My name is Pixie-Dust and I am here for your tooth.”

The little creature looked like a tiny princess. She was hovering by Lilly's bedside table and was the size of a doll. She had a small wand and was wearing a twinkly green dress.

“I'm shorry,” Lilly said. “But my toosh hasn't come out yet.” Lilly thought she must be really tired as her voice sounded a bit funny.

“That's odd,” Pixie-Dust said. She took out a small tablet and turned it on. “Hmm, you are Lilly Molaire of 23, Wood Close, aren't you?”

“Yesh,” Lilly nodded.

“Well, it says that I am to pick up your first milk tooth,” Pixie-Dust explained.

“Oh,” Lilly replied, not really knowing what else to say. “I am shorry but my toosh hasn’t...” As she was talking, her tongue rolled across her wobbly tooth... but it wasn’t there! Lilly felt her pillow. There was something small and hard! “My toosh!” she squealed. “It came out! That musht be why I’m shpeaking weirdly!”

Pixie-Dust fluttered over and took the tooth. “Thank you,” she said. Then she waved her little wand.

When Lilly woke up, she felt her wobbly tooth with her tongue. It was missing! She remembered a funny dream about a little tooth fairy. “How shtrange,” she said with a yawn. As she stretched, she felt something hard under her pillow.

It was a coin!

Lilly pulled back the covers and quickly got dressed. She couldn’t wait for the school trip to the chocolate factory. Now she could buy a Choccy-Choc-Choc bar!

“Thank you,” Lilly whispered, and somewhere in a far-off land, a little fairy smiled.

Answers

1. What did Lilly do with her tongue when she was trying to get to sleep?
Tick one.

- stuck it out
 bit it
 rolled it over her wobbly tooth

2. Lilly shrieked. Why did Lilly shriek?

Lilly shrieked because the tooth fairy/Pixie-Dust scared/shocked her.

3. "I'm shorry," Lilly said. "But my toosh hasn't come out yet."

Why was Lilly's voice sounding strange?

Lilly's voice sounded strange because her tooth had fallen out without her knowing.

4. Pixie-Dust fluttered over and took the tooth.

What word could you use instead of 'fluttered'?

Accept any verb that is similar to 'fluttered', such as flew or hovered, or other reasonable 'moving' verbs such as zoomed or sped.

5. Number the events below to show the order in which they happen in the story.

- Lilly stretched.
 Lilly thought she heard someone.
 Lilly closed her eyes and tried to fall asleep.
 Lilly found a coin.
 Pixie-Dust turned on a small tablet.

6. "Thank you," Lilly whispered, and somewhere in a far-off land, a little fairy smiled.

Who was it that smiled, and why do you think they did this?

It was Pixie-Dust who smiled.

Accept reasonable answers as to why she smiled that show an understanding that Pixie-Dust can hear or 'feel' the 'thank you', and that this makes her feel happy or accomplished in some way.

E.g. It was Pixie-Dust who smiled. I think she smiled because she's magic and she can hear Lilly even though she's far away. Pixie-Dust is happy because Lilly can now buy a Choccy-Choc-Choc bar on the school trip.
