

Fairy Tale Sentences 1

I can order sentences to tell a story.

1. Cut out the sentences and stick them in the right order to tell the start of the story. Use the pictures to help you.

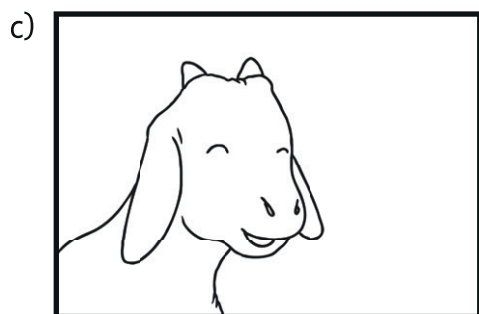

The Three Billy Goats Gruff

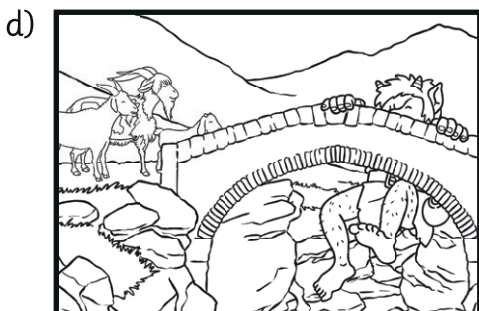

Empty dotted box for sentence a)

Empty dotted box for sentence b)

Empty dotted box for sentence c)

Empty dotted box for sentence d)

Fairy Tale Sentences 1

A big troll lived under the bridge and would not let them across.

The troll popped his head up and said, "Who's that trip-trapping over my bridge?"

The youngest goat said, "I'm not scared of the troll, I will cross the bridge."

One day, three billy goats wanted to cross the bridge over the river.

Fairy Tale Sentences 1

I can order sentences to tell a story.

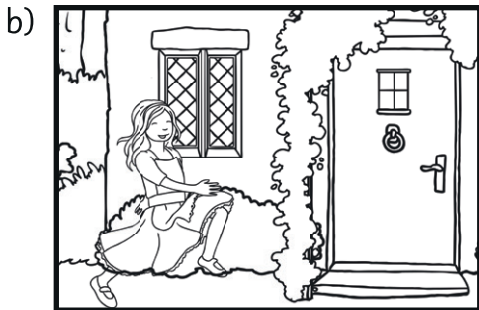

1. Cut out the sentences and stick them in the right order to tell the start of the story. Use the pictures to help you.

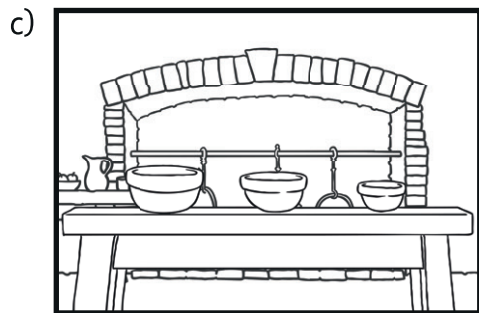

Goldilocks and the Three Bears

Empty dotted box for pasting sentence a.

Empty dotted box for pasting sentence b.

Empty dotted box for pasting sentence c.

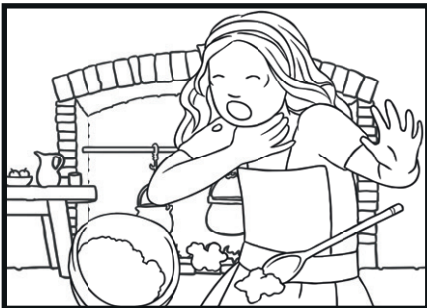

Fairy Tale Sentences 1

d)

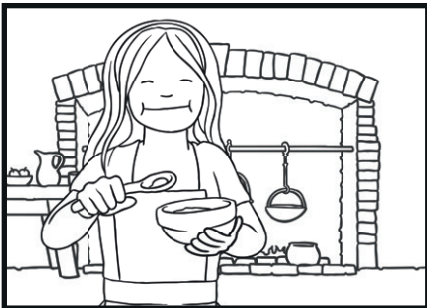

Blank dotted box for writing a sentence.

e)

Blank dotted box for writing a sentence.

f)

Blank dotted box for writing a sentence.

Fairy Tale Sentences 1

Goldilocks was hungry so she ate some of the porridge in the biggest bowl.

One day, a girl called Goldilocks was walking in the woods when she spotted a little house, called Three Bears Cottage.

In the kitchen, she found a table with three bowls of porridge.

“Oh that’s too hot!” she cried, dropping the spoon.

Goldilocks was feeling curious so she went inside.

So she tried the other bowls and found the porridge in the smallest bowl was just right.

Fairy Tale Sentences 1

I can order sentences to tell a story.

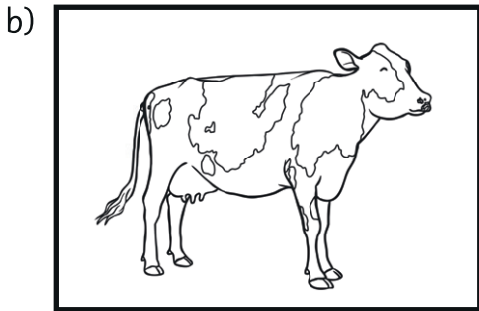

1. Cut out the sentences and stick them in the right order to tell the start of the story. Use the pictures to help you.

Jack and the Beanstalk

Empty dotted box for pasting sentence a.

Empty dotted box for pasting sentence b.

Empty dotted box for pasting sentence c.

Empty dotted box for pasting sentence d.

Fairy Tale Sentences 1

.....

.....

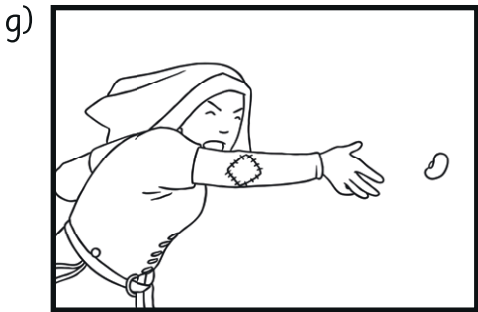

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Fairy Tale Sentences 1

Jack took the bean and gave Penny to the old man, who said he would take good care of her.

Once upon a time, a young boy called Jack lived with his mum in an old cottage.

At the market, Jack met a funny old man who said he would take Penny in exchange for a magic bean.

One day, Jack's mum saw that they had no food left at all so she asked Jack to sell Penny at the market.

When Jack's mum saw the bean she was very angry. "One bean is no good! Go to bed!" she yelled, tossing the bean out of the window.

Jack loved Penny and he was very sad but he did as he was told and took Penny to the market.

While Jack and his mum slept that night, the bean began to grow and grow...

They were very poor and all they had in the world was one cow, called Penny.

1. Cut out the sentences and stick them in the right order to tell the start of the story. Use the pictures to help you.
- a) One day, three billy goats wanted to cross the bridge over the river.
 - b) A big troll lived under the bridge and would not let them across.
 - c) The youngest goat said, "I'm not scared of the troll, I will cross the bridge."
 - d) The troll popped his head up and said, "Who's that trip-trapping over my bridge?"

1. Cut out the sentences and stick them in the right order to tell the start of the story. Use the pictures to help you.
- a) One day, a girl called Goldilocks was walking in the woods when she spotted a little house, called Three Bears Cottage.
 - b) Goldilocks was feeling curious so she went inside.
 - c) In the kitchen, she found a table with three bowls of porridge.
 - d) Goldilocks was hungry so she ate some of the porridge in the biggest bowl.
 - e) "Oh that's too hot!" she cried, dropping the spoon.
 - f) So she tried the other bowls and found the porridge in the smallest bowl was just right.

1. Cut out the sentences and stick them in the right order to tell the start of the story. Use the pictures to help you.
- a) Once upon a time, a young boy called Jack lived with his mum in an old cottage.
 - b) They were very poor and all they had in the world was one cow, called Penny.
 - c) One day, Jack's mum saw they had no food at all left so she asked Jack to sell Penny at the market.
 - d) Jack loved Penny and he was very sad but he did as he was told and took Penny to the market.
 - e) At the market Jack met a funny old man who said he would take Penny in exchange for a magic bean.
 - f) Jack took the bean and gave Penny to the old man who said he would take good care of her.
 - g) When Jack's mum saw the bean, she was very angry. "One bean is no good! Go to bed!" she yelled, tossing the bean out of the window.
 - h) While Jack and his mum slept that night the bean began to grow and grow...