

Fairy Tale Sentences 2

I can order sentences to tell a story.

Read the beginning of the story.

One day, three billy goats wanted to cross the bridge over the river.

A big troll lived under the bridge and would not let them across.

The youngest goat said, "I'm not scared of the troll, I will cross the bridge."

The troll popped his head up and said, "Who's that trip-trapping over my bridge?"

Next in the story...

1. Unjumble the next few sentences and write them down to finish the story. Can you add a final sentence of your own?

Then, the biggest goat butted the troll into the water.

Soon, the second goat ran past the troll to join his brother.

The youngest goat ran away across the bridge.

Fairy Tale Sentences 2

I can order sentences to tell a story.

Read the beginning of the story.

One day, a girl called Goldilocks was walking in the woods when she spotted a little house, called Three Bears Cottage. Goldilocks was feeling curious so she went inside.

In the kitchen, she found a table with three bowls of porridge. Goldilocks was hungry so she ate some of the porridge in the biggest bowl.

“Oh that’s too hot!” she cried, dropping the spoon.

So she tried the other bowls and found the porridge in the smallest bowl was just right.

Next in the story...

1. Unjumble the next few sentences and write them down to finish the story. Can you add a final sentence of your own?

While she was sleeping, the three bears came home.

Goldilocks soon felt tired so she tried the bears’ beds.

She liked the smallest bed the best and she fell asleep.

They chased Goldilocks out of the house.

Fairy Tale Sentences 2

I can order sentences to tell a story.

Read the beginning of the story.

Once upon a time, a young boy called Jack lived with his mum in an old cottage. They were very poor and all they had in the world was one cow, called Penny.

One day, Jack's mum saw that they had no food left at all so she asked Jack to sell Penny at the market. Jack loved Penny and he was very sad, but he did as he was told and took Penny to the market.

At the market, Jack met a funny old man who said he would take Penny in exchange for a magic bean. Jack took the bean and gave Penny to the old man, who said he would take good care of her. When Jack's mum saw the bean she was very angry. "One bean is no good! Go to bed!" she yelled, tossing the bean out of the window.

While Jack and his mum slept that night, the bean began to grow and grow...

Next in the story...

1. Unjumble the next few sentences and write them down to finish the story. Can you add a final sentence of your own?

At the top, an angry giant chased Jack through the clouds but he got away.

The next morning, Jack was amazed to find a huge beanstalk growing golden leaves.

Jack climbed back down the beanstalk and chopped it down with his axe.

He climbed the beanstalk, up into the clouds, picking off all the gold leaves.

1. Unjumble the next few sentences and write them down to finish the story. Can you add a final sentence of your own?

*The youngest goat ran away across the bridge.
Soon, the second goat ran past the troll to join his brother.
Then, the biggest goat butted the troll into the water.*

Child's final sentence should finish off the story, e.g.

*The three goats were happy that they had crossed the bridge.
The troll was never seen again.*

1. Unjumble the next few sentences and write them down to finish the story. Can you add a final sentence of your own?

*Goldilocks soon felt tired so she tried the bears' beds.
She liked the smallest bed the best and she fell asleep.
While she was sleeping, the three bears came home.
They chased Goldilocks out of the house.*

Child's final sentence should finish off the story, e.g.

*Goldilocks ran home.
Goldilocks said sorry to the bears.*

1. Unjumble the next few sentences and write them down to finish the story. Can you add a final sentence of your own?

*The next morning, Jack was amazed to find a huge beanstalk growing golden leaves.
He climbed the beanstalk, up into the clouds, picking off all the gold leaves.
At the top, an angry giant chased Jack through the clouds but he got away.
Jack climbed back down the beanstalk and chopped it down with his axe.*

Child's final sentence should finish off the story, e.g.

*Jack and his mum lived happily ever after.
Jack and his mum were rich and happy.*