

Using Full Stops, Question Marks and Exclamation Marks :

A Punctuation Game

Sample Sentences

- Some children like to do their homework in the morning.
- I was wondering, are you coming tonight?
- I thought I asked you last night about the teams.
- Our team just won the race!
- The maths test was really hard.
- Will I see you later?
- Wow, that ride was amazing!
- The teacher asked the class to go and get their coats.
- Oh, I didn't see you come in!
- You are going to see your mum today, aren't you?

Using Full Stops, Question Marks and Exclamation Marks :

A Punctuation Game

Sample Sentences

- Ten red cars parked in the car park today.
- I was wondering, are you coming tonight?
- Tell me your name please.
- That goal was amazing!
- The maths test was really hard.
- Will I see you later?
- Come here now!
- I heard you asked her about her cat.
- Oh, I didn't see you come in!
- Can you take that home?

Using Full Stops, Question Marks and Exclamation Marks :

A Punctuation Game

Sample Sentences

- Ten cars parked in the car park.
- Whose pen is that?
- Tell me your name.
- That really hurt!
- The maths test was really hard.
- Do you need some help?
- I just won the lottery!
- He was a kind man.
- Whoa, look out!
- How was your dinner?

