

Training Camp

Join Kit and Sam at the superheroes' training camp.

Training Camp

A 'Let's Read Together!' Book

Kit and Sam hid behind a wall. When an arm was raised, the ball went high up in the air. The higher the arm, the higher the ball went. When Kit and Sam were discovered, they put on masks and capes and joined in.

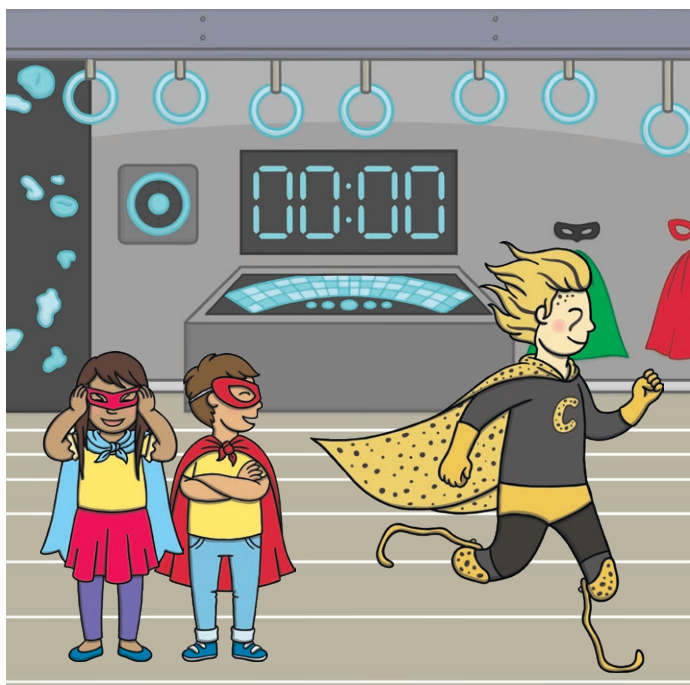

It was time for an energy boost. Everyone went into a glass room. Kit and Sam covered their ears because of a very loud sound.

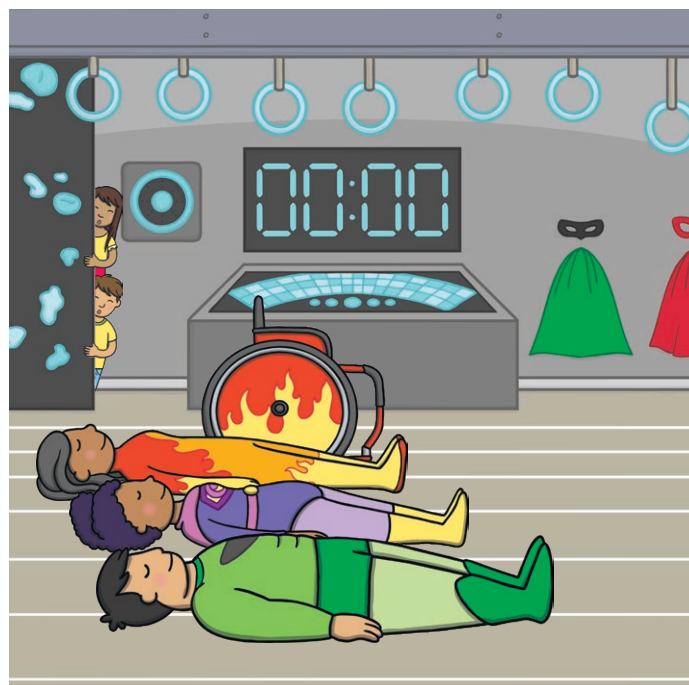

Kit was looking at some cards about people with magic powers. He thought it would be fun to join them at their training camp.

Then, the speaker said it was time for a short rest. Kit and Sam thought they should go home. They used the magic book to take them back to their house.

The sound was from Cheetman. He was as fast as a cheetah. Kit and Sam were shocked at how fast they could run, too. Then, Cheetman showed everyone how to take off. Kit and Sam focused on their feet and then they shot up in the air.

Kit and Sam arrived in a giant hall. It was a lot quieter than what Kit and Sam thought. Suddenly, the speaker said that it was time for the next lesson.
