

My Day

I can describe everyday events in the correct order.

Draw pictures of the things that happen in your day, in the order that they happen.

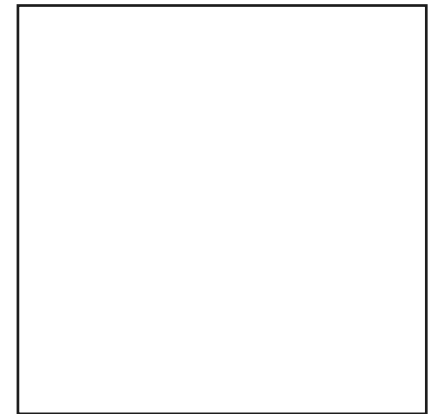

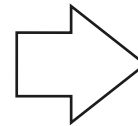

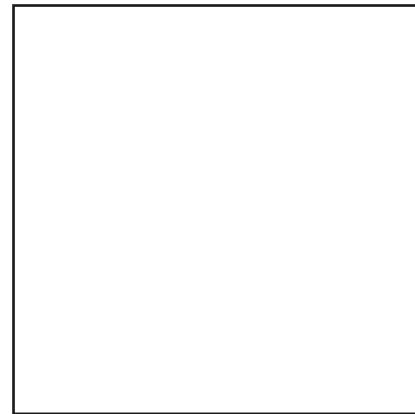

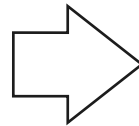

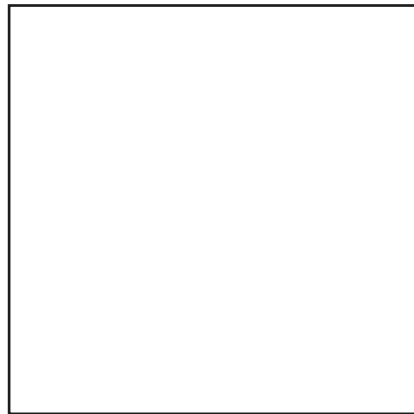

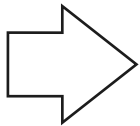

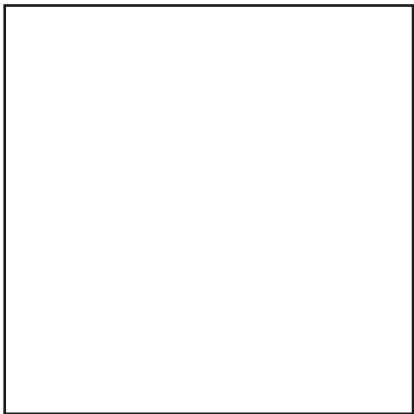

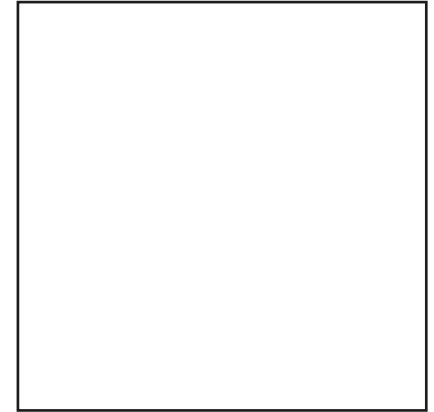

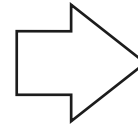

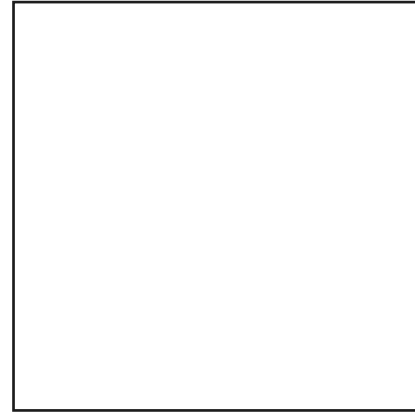

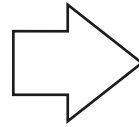

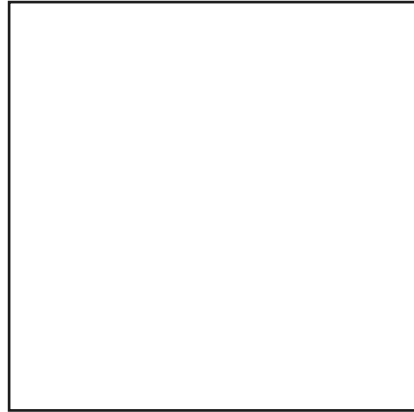

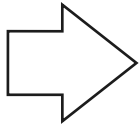

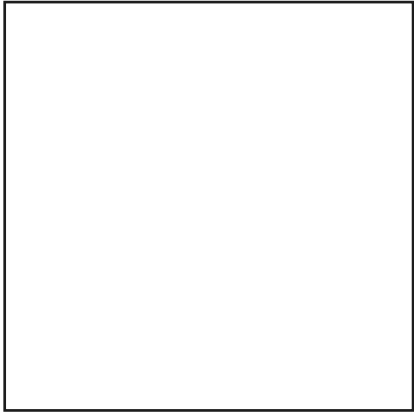

My Day

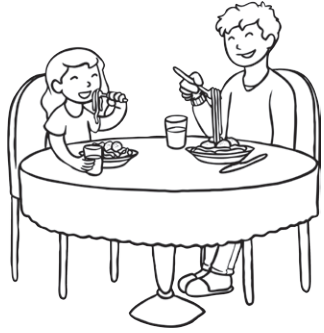

I can describe everyday events in the correct order.

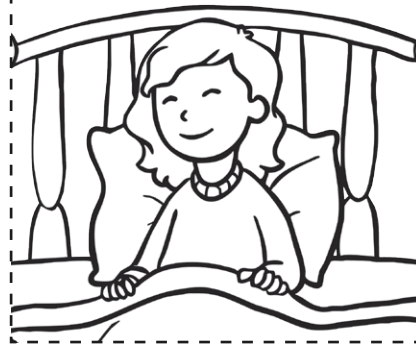

Cut out the pictures and stick them in the order that they happen in your day.

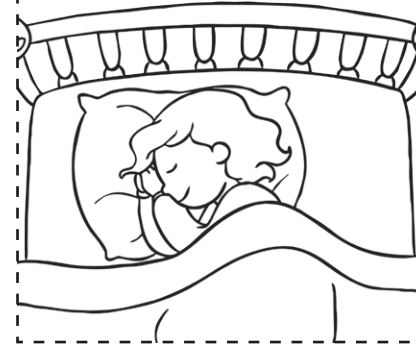

eat my dinner

wake up

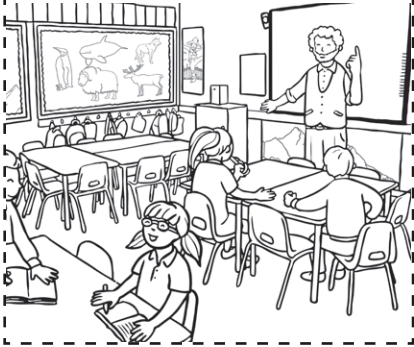

go to sleep

eat my lunch

school time

eat my breakfast

go home

get dressed

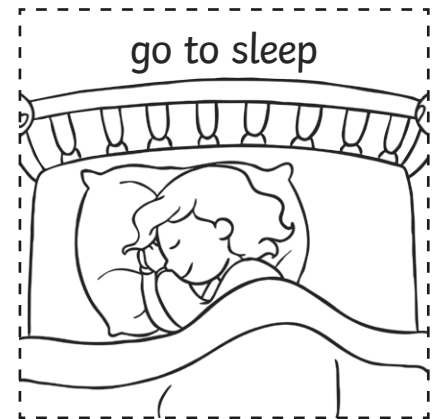

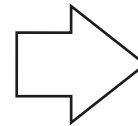

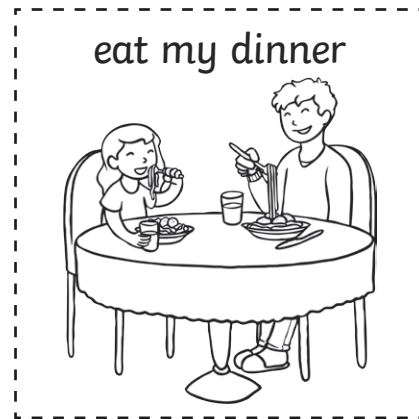

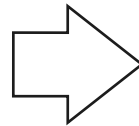

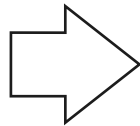

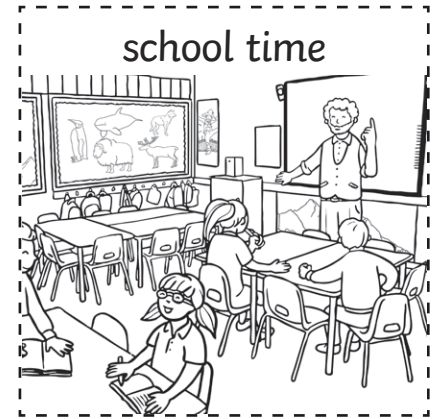

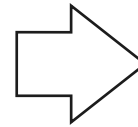

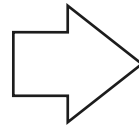

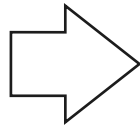

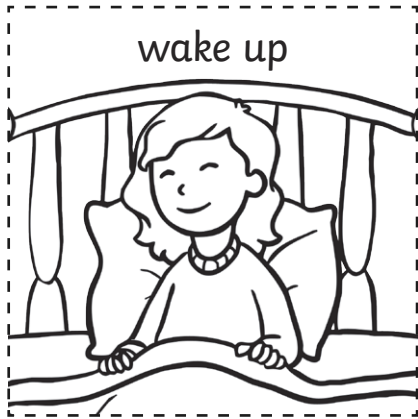

My Day Answers

I can describe everyday events in the correct order.

Cut out the pictures and stick them in the order that they happen in your day.

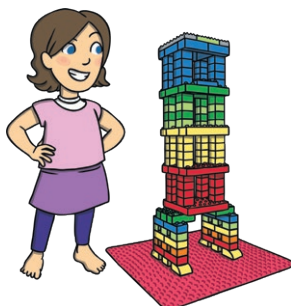

first

next

finally

Accept any sensible answers given.

1st - Max

2nd - Dan

3rd - Emma

4th - Anna

5th - Martha

go to sleep

lunch time

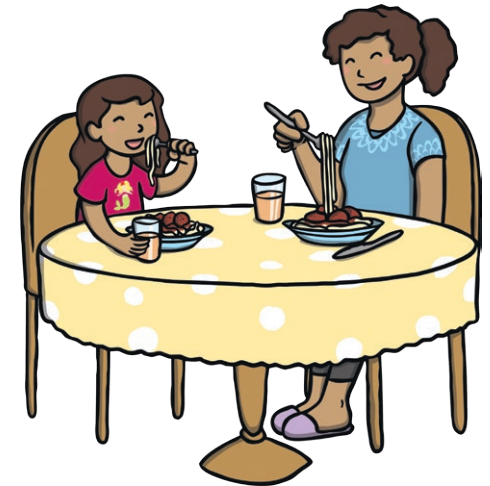

get dressed

eat breakfast

school time

eat dinner

bedtime story

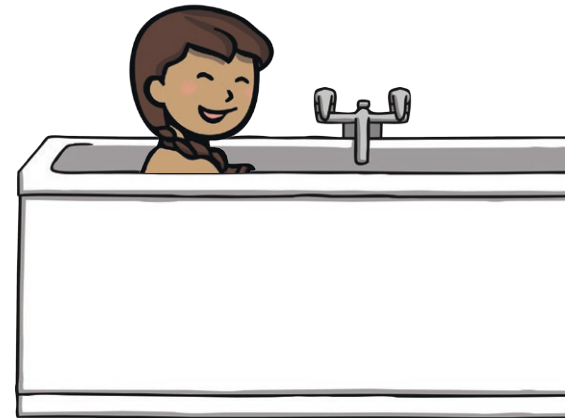

wake up

go to school

go home

bath time

break time

brush teeth

Diving into Mastery – Diving

Adult Guidance with Question Prompts

Children should be able to use time vocabulary and the language of 'first', 'next' and 'finally' to talk about the sequence of their day. Children can take and order pictures to show other three-step processes.

What's the first thing you do in the day?

What's the next thing you do in the day?

What's the final thing you do in the day?

What do you do first when you come to school?

What do you do next when you come to school?

What is the final thing you do before you go home from school?

Can you explain why you have matched the pictures to the words?

My Day

Keira is building a tower.

Match the pictures to the words to order them.

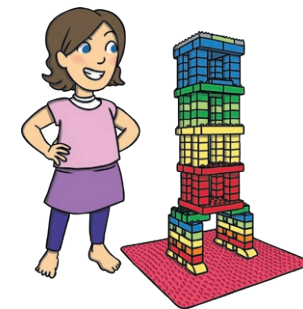

first

next

finally

Can you draw your own 3 pictures to show someone doing something? Can you label your pictures with 'first', 'next' and 'finally'?

Diving into Mastery – Deeper

Adult Guidance with Question Prompts

Children should be able to use time vocabulary to describe a special day and order the events.

What did you do first?

What did you do next?

What is the final thing you did?

Ask a friend about their special day. Can they use the words in the word bank to talk about their day?

My Day

Describe a special day to a friend.

Tick the words that you use. Try to use them all.

before <input type="checkbox"/>	after <input type="checkbox"/>
first <input type="checkbox"/>	next <input type="checkbox"/>
finally <input type="checkbox"/>	morning <input type="checkbox"/>
afternoon <input type="checkbox"/>	evening <input type="checkbox"/>

Can you draw a picture and write a word for each picture to order your special day?

first

Diving into Mastery – Deepest Adult Guidance with Question Prompts

Children should be able to use the language of 'before', 'after', 'first', 'next' and 'last' to describe, sort and order events.

How many boys are there? What are their names?

How many girls are there? What are their names?

If the boys arrived before the girls, which positions must the boys have come in? Did Dan arrive before Max or after Max? So when did Dan arrive at school? When did Max arrive?

Could Anna have arrived third? Why not? When did Anna arrive?

When did Emma and Martha arrive? How do you know?

Who came first?

Who came next?

Who came last?

My Day

5 children came to school in the morning.
Use the clues to work out the order that the children arrived.

- Dan arrived before Emma but after Max.
- Anna arrived before Martha but after Emma.
- The boys arrived before the girls.

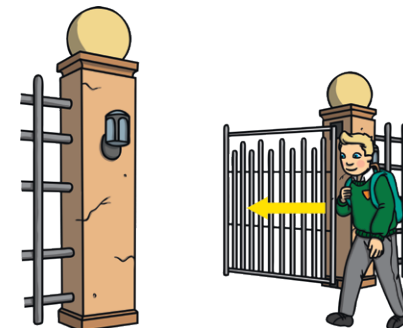

1st _____

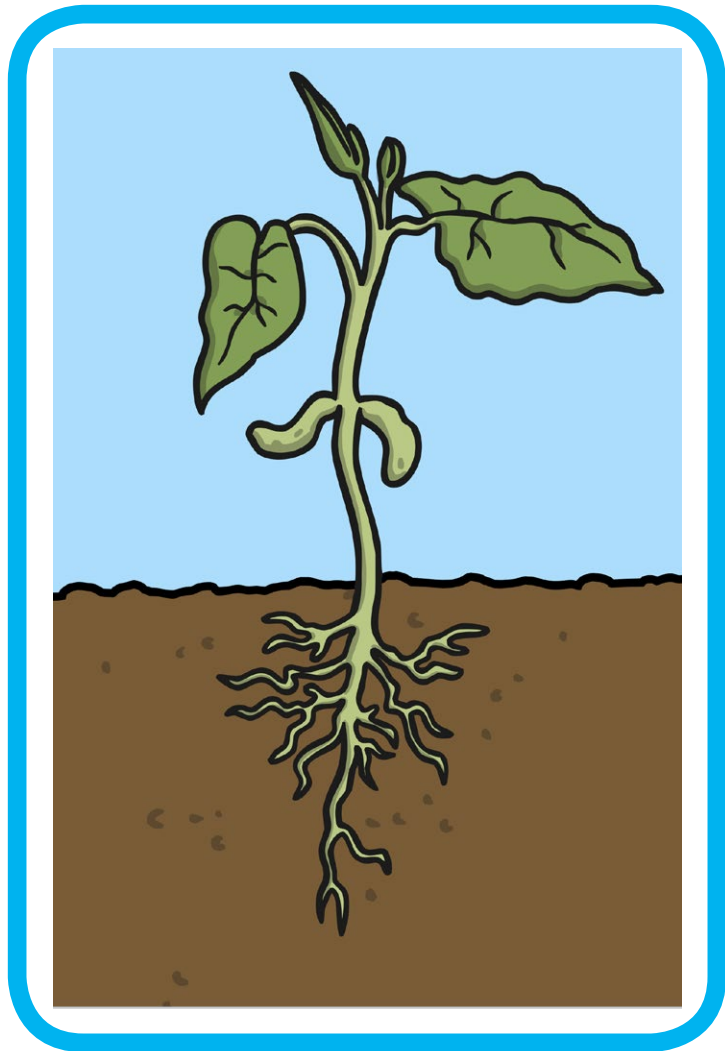

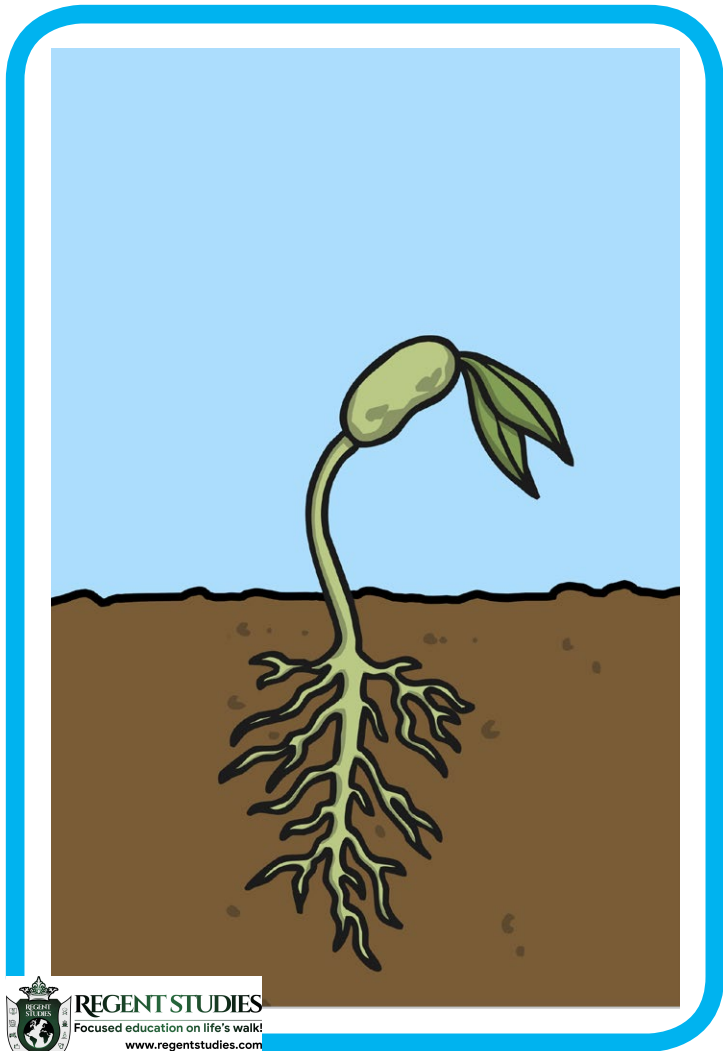

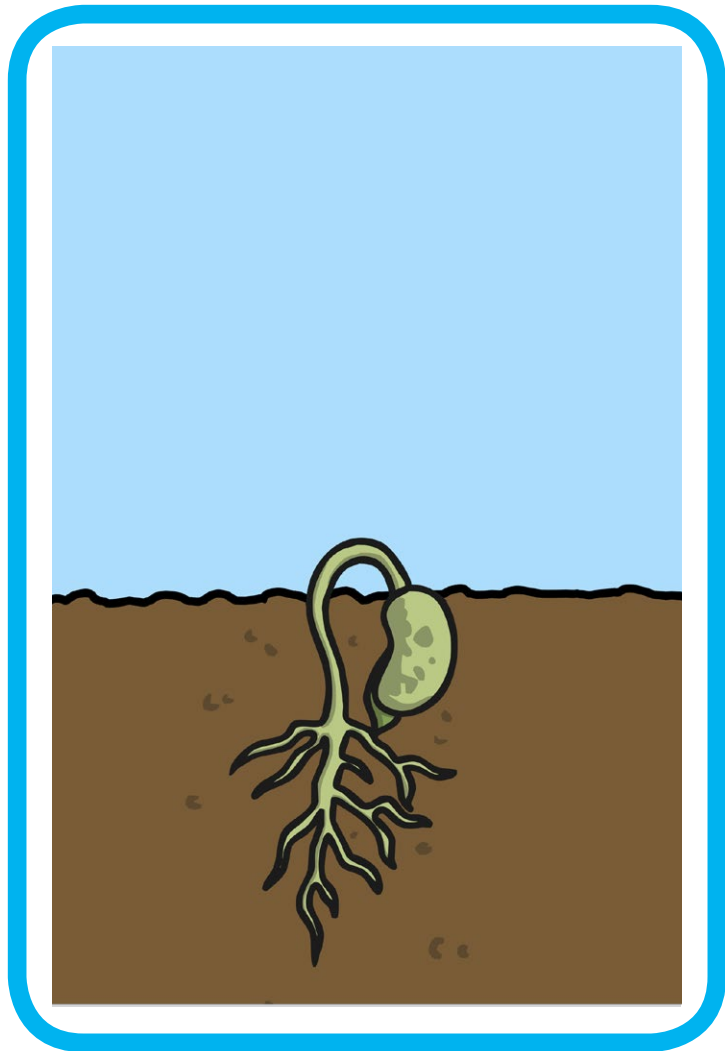

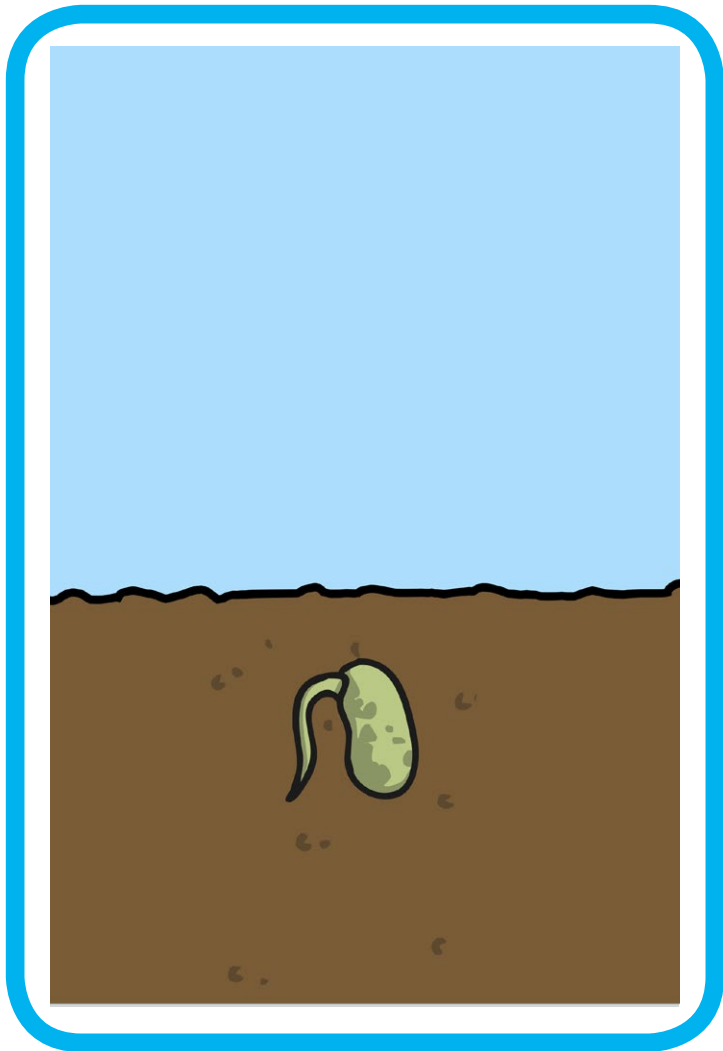

2nd _____

3rd _____

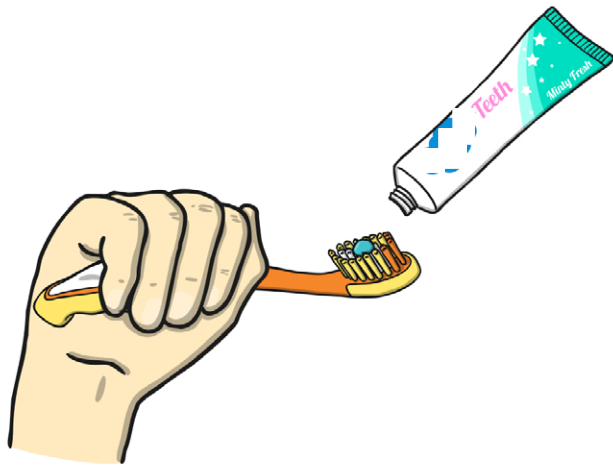

4th _____

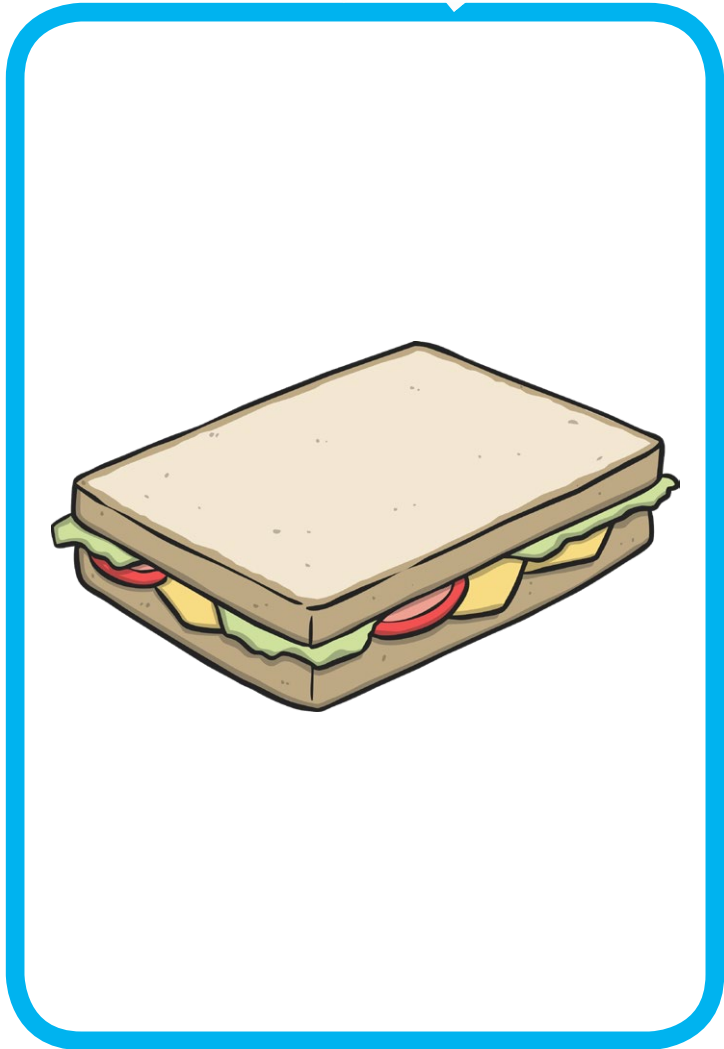

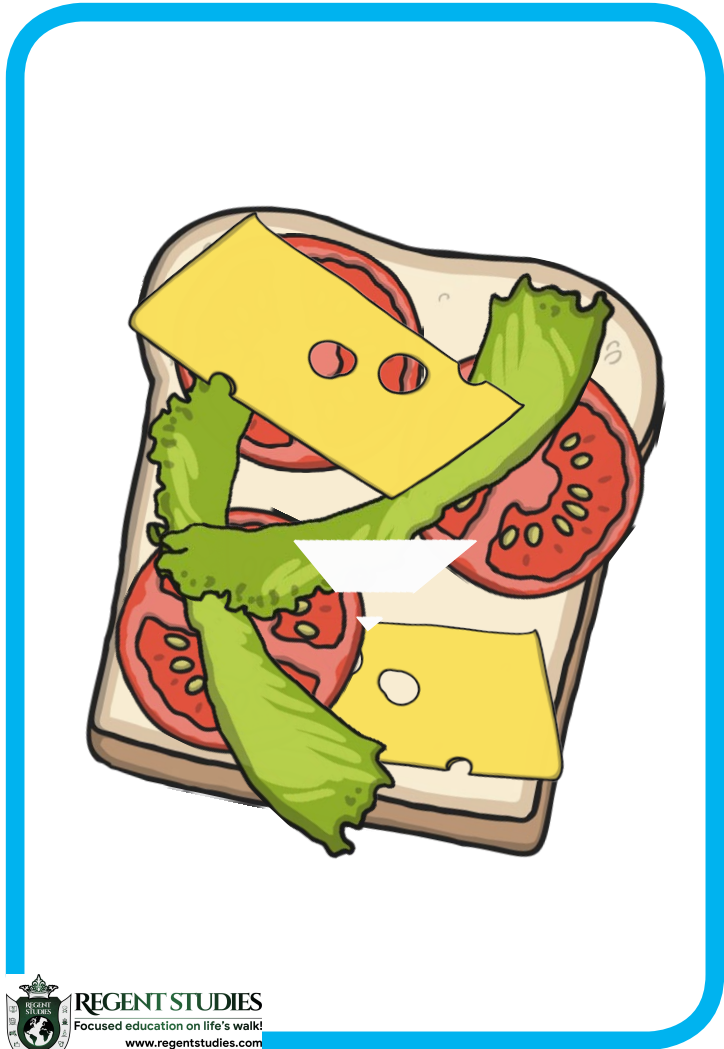

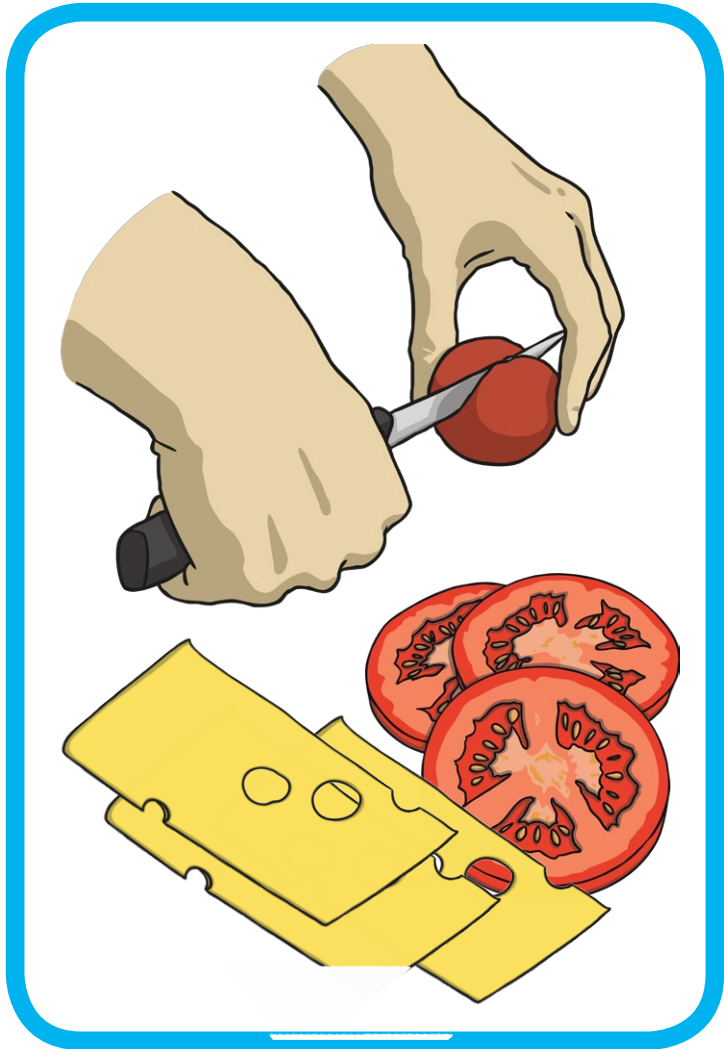

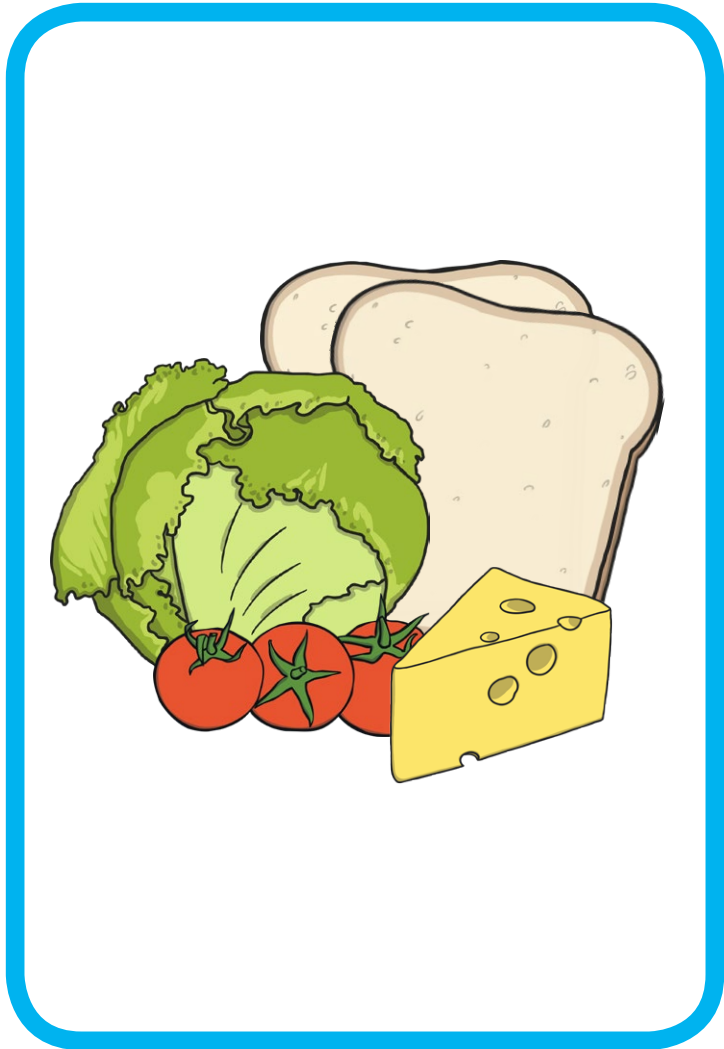

5th _____

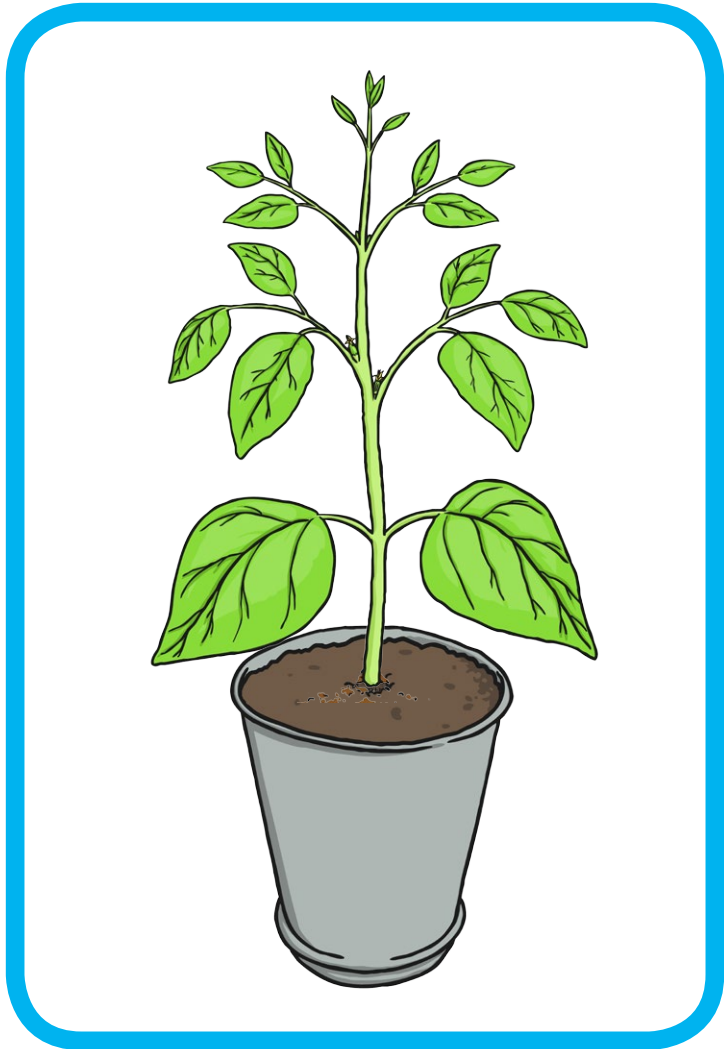

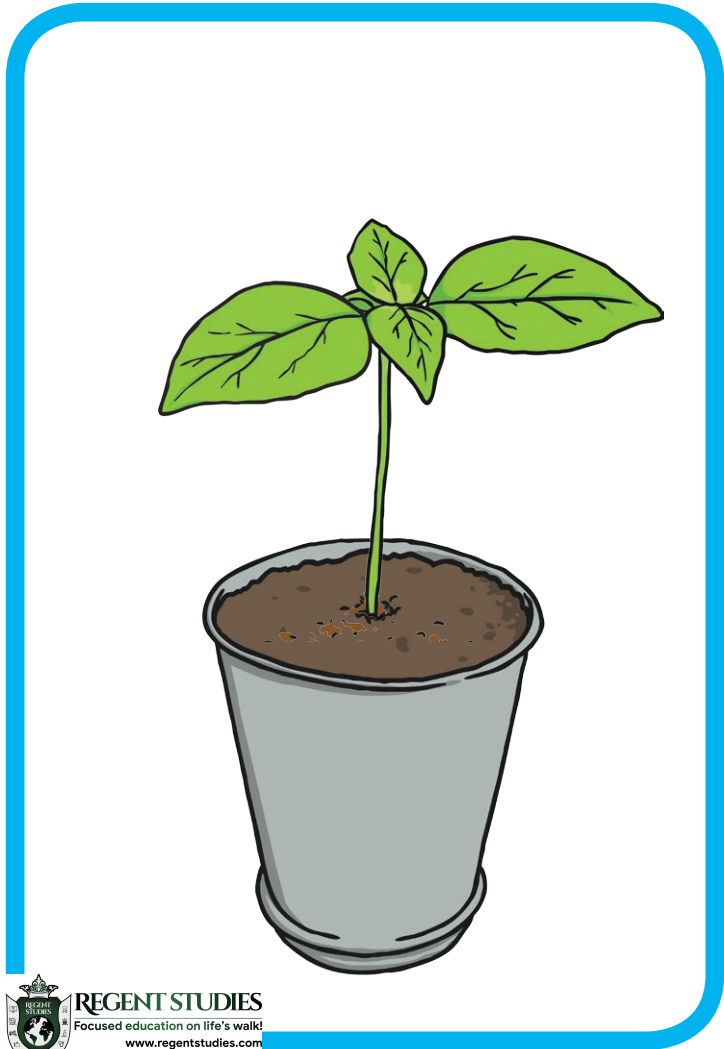

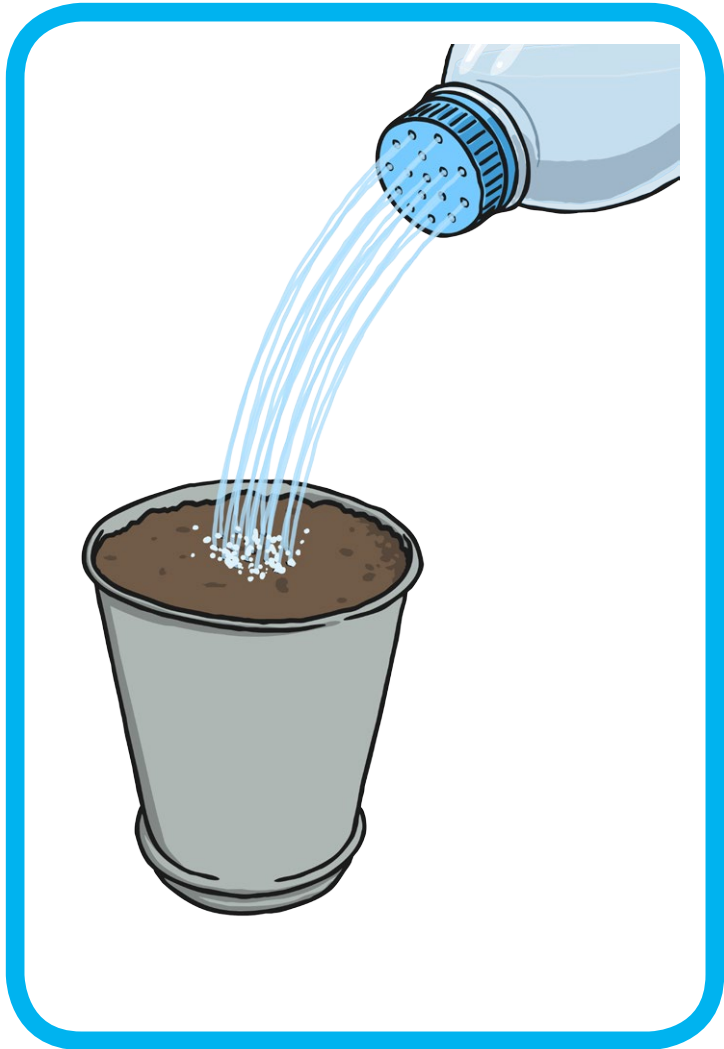

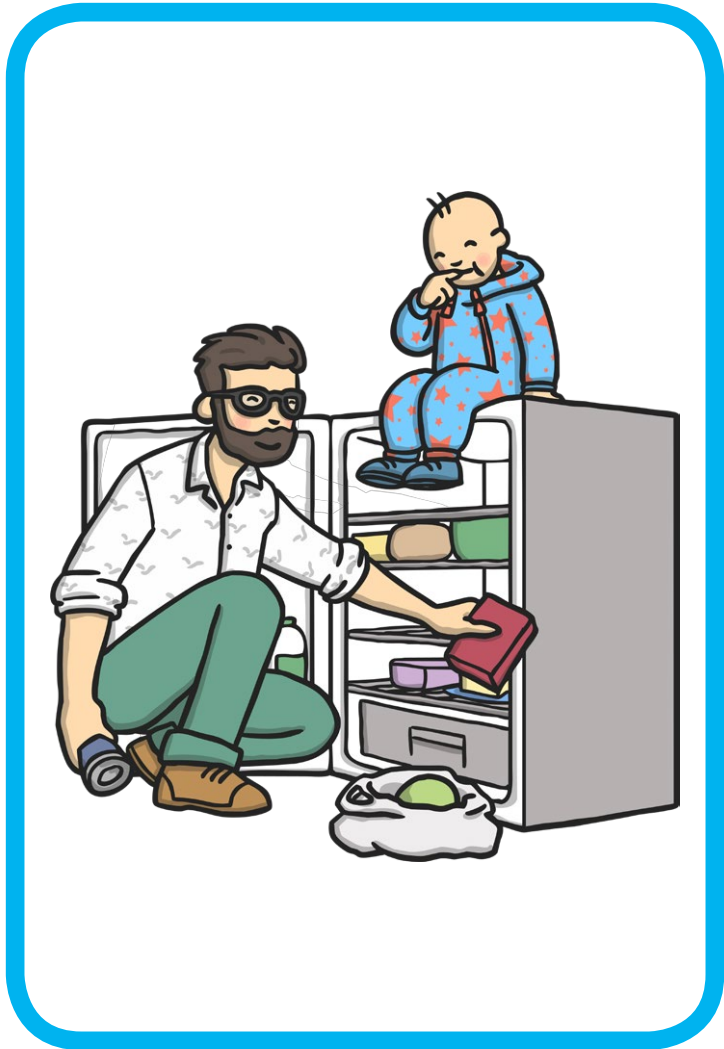

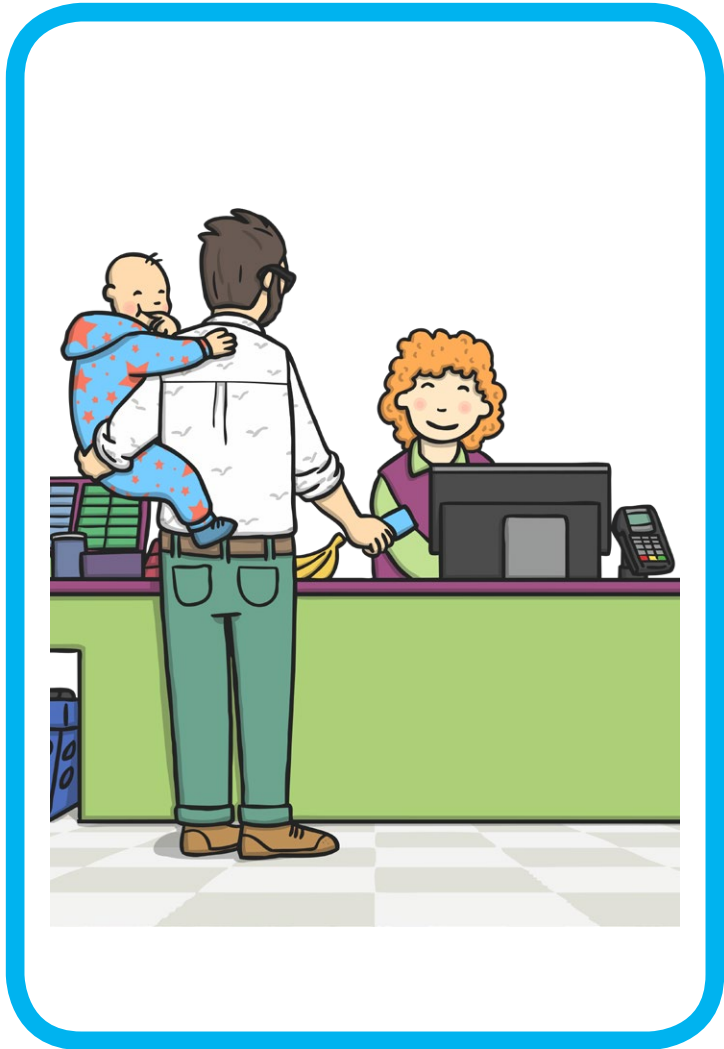

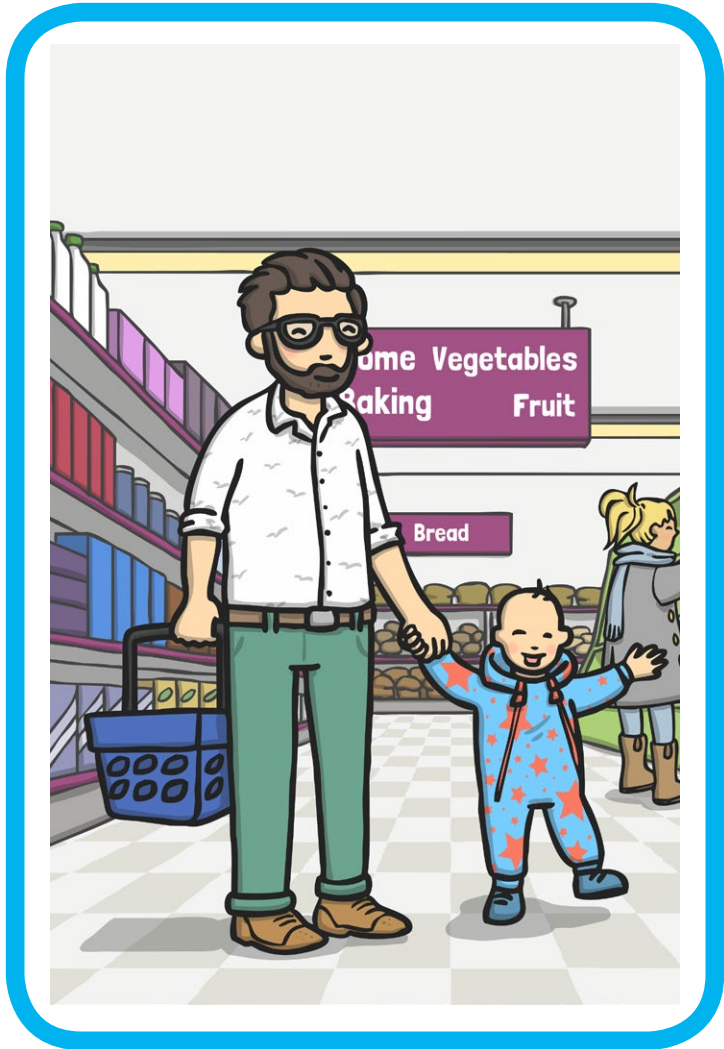

before

after

earlier

later

first

next

last

today

yesterday

tomorrow

morning

afternoon

evening

night

When do you have P.E.?

When do you brush your teeth?

When do you do your homework?

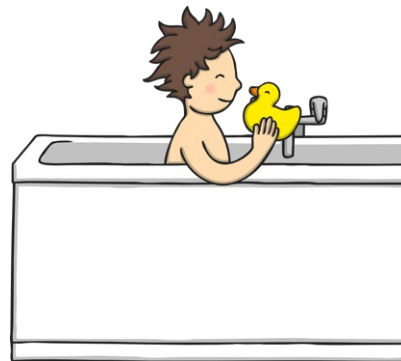

When do you go to sleep?

When do you get dressed?

When do you have a bath?

When do you eat breakfast?

When do you eat lunch?

When do you attend school?

When do you eat dinner?

When do you wake up?

When do you play with friends?

When do you read a story?

When do you go swimming?

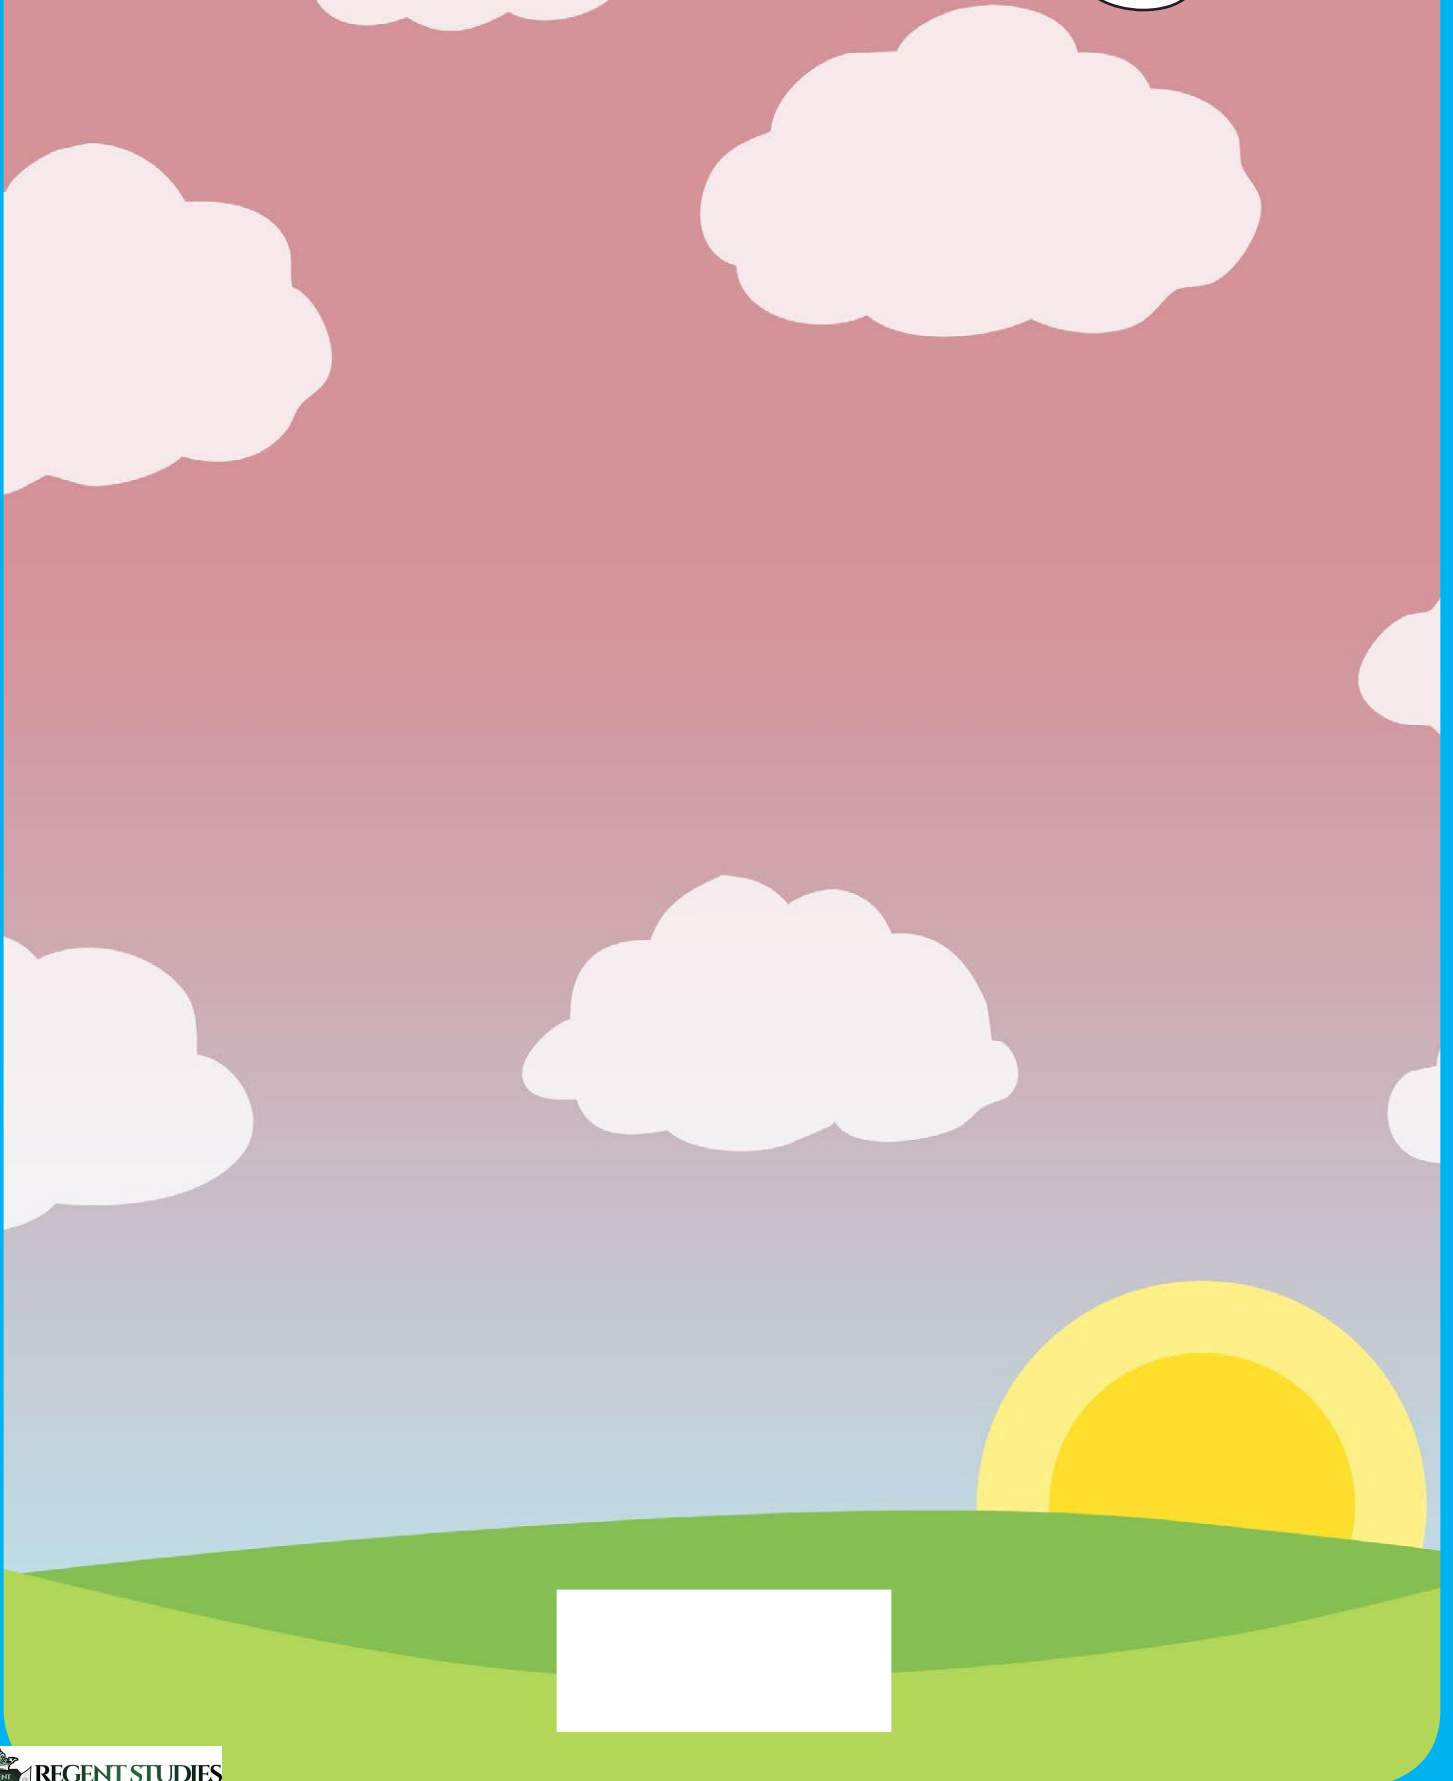

When do you watch TV?

When do you wear pyjamas?

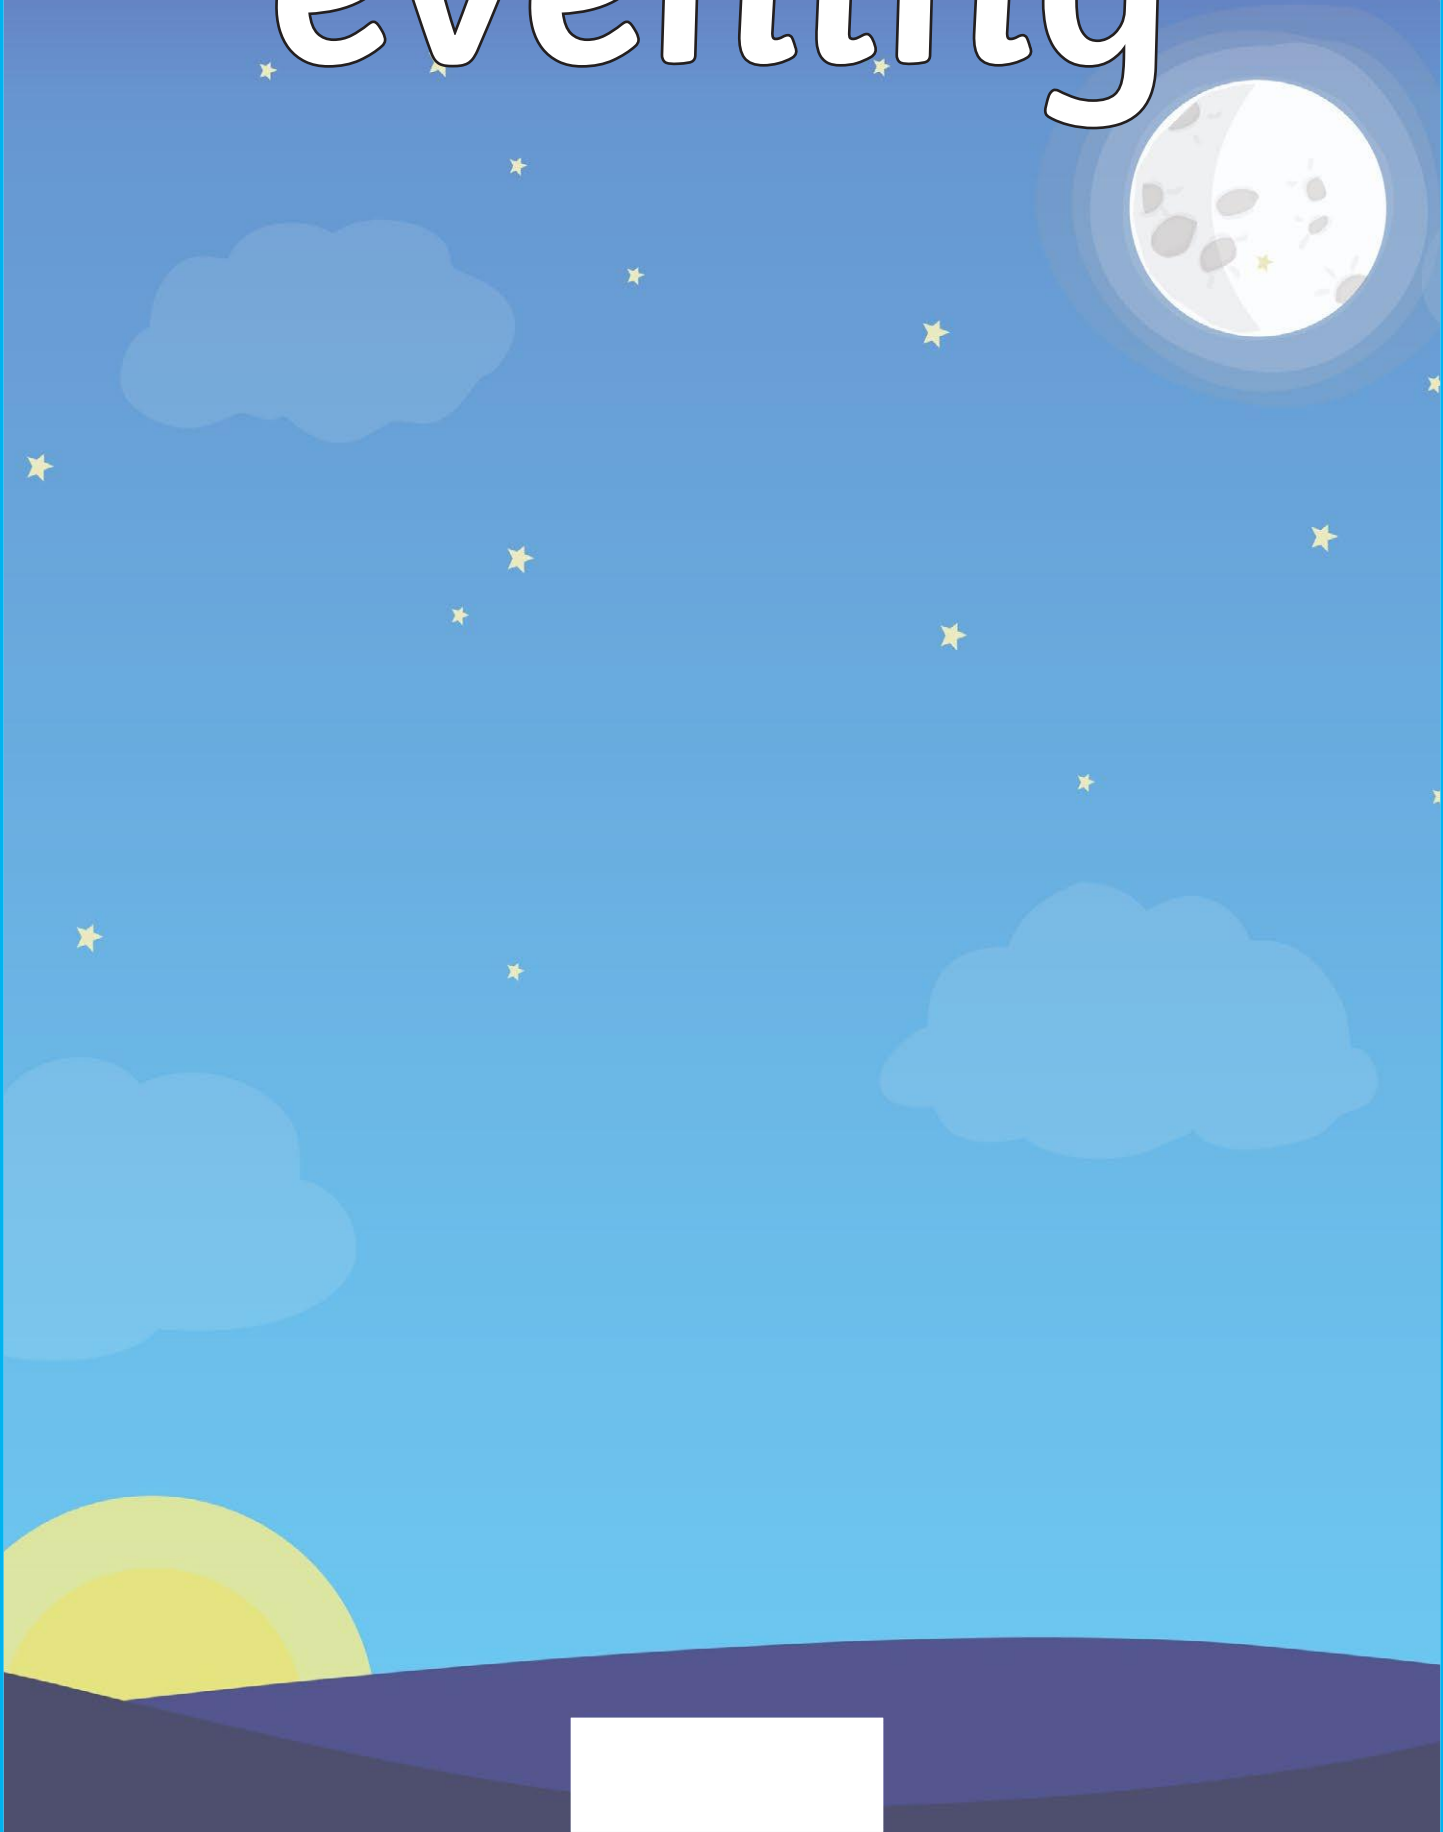

morning

afternoon

evening

night

