Cinderella

Once upon a time, there lived a beautiful young woman called Cinderella. Cinderella lived with her wicked stepmother and two nasty sisters. They were very unkind to poor Cinderella and made her do all of the housework.

An invitation arrived from the palace one day. It invited everyone to the prince's ball. The wicked stepmother said that Cinderella was not allowed to go.

The day of the ball arrived and poor Cinderella was left alone at the house. "I wish I could go to the ball," she sighed. Then, a lovely lady with a gold wand in her hand appeared in the room. "I am your fairy godmother and you shall go to the ball!" she said.

Cinderella

The fairy godmother flicked her magic wand and turned a pumpkin into a magnificent coach and six mice into six splendid white horses. Then, she turned Cinderella's ragged dress into a beautiful gown and her old shoes into the prettiest glass slippers. "Remember, you must leave the ball before the clock strikes 12," the fairy godmother warned her.

Cinderella had a wonderful time at the ball and danced with the prince all night. Cinderella was enjoying herself so much that she didn't notice the time. Midnight approached and the clock began to strike. Cinderella ran out of the palace but left one of her glass slippers behind. The prince ran after her but he was too late!

The prince went from house to house the next morning with the glass slipper. He finally arrived at Cinderella's house. The first sister tried on the slipper but it was too small. The second sister tried on the slipper but it was too big.

"Please may I try on the slipper?" asked Cinderella.

The slipper fit Cinderella perfectly! Cinderella and the prince got married and lived happily ever after.
