

The Tortoise and the Hare

Once, there was a hare who told everyone how fast he could run.

The tortoise thought he was a show-off. He asked the hare for a race. The hare thought it would be easy.

All of the animals got together to watch the race.

The hare set off. After a little while, he decided to stop for a rest.

“You are so slow, you will never win!” he said to the tortoise.

The hare sat down by a tree. “That tortoise will never beat me!” he thought. The hare soon fell asleep.

The tortoise kept going. He didn’t stop until he got to the end of the race.

“Hooray!” the animals shouted. “Tortoise, you have won!”

The cheering woke up the hare.

He ran as fast as he could, but it was too late. The tortoise had won.

“It’s not fair!” said the hare. “I was asleep, we have to do the race again!”

But this time, no-one listened to the hare.

Keep trying, even when things seem hard.

The Tortoise and the Hare

Once, there was a strong, young hare who bragged about how fast he could run.

The wise tortoise thought he was a show-off so he asked the hare for a race. The hare thought he would easily beat the tortoise.

All of the animals gathered at the finish line to see who would win.

As soon as the race started, the hare dashed ahead. After a little while, he stopped for a rest.

“You are so slow, you will never win!” he said to the tortoise.

The hare leaned against a tree. “That tortoise will never beat me!” he laughed to himself. The hare closed his eyes and soon, he was asleep.

The tortoise walked slowly past the hare. He didn’t give up until he got to the end of the race.

The animals cheered as they saw the tortoise. “Tortoise, you are the winner!” they shouted happily. The hare heard the cheering and woke up.

He ran as fast as he could towards the finish line, but it was too late. The tortoise had already crossed the line.

“It’s not fair!” complained the hare. “We have to do the race again!”

But this time, no-one listened to the hare.

Keep trying, even when things seem hard.

The Tortoise and the Hare

Once, there was a strong, young hare who bragged about how fast he could run.

Tired of hearing him boast, the wise tortoise challenged the hare to a race. The hare agreed at once, thinking that he would beat the tortoise easily.

All of the animals gathered at the finish line to watch the race.

As soon as the race started, the hare dashed ahead. He ran down the road but within minutes, decided to pause for a rest.

“How do you expect to win this race when you are walking along at such a slow pace?” he said smugly to the tortoise.

The hare stretched himself out next to a tree and fell asleep thinking, “There is plenty of time to relax. That tortoise will never beat me!”

The tortoise walked slowly past the hare. He walked and walked. He persevered until he got to the end of the race.

The animals cheered as they saw the tortoise reach the finish line. “Tortoise, you are the winner!” they shouted. The hare heard the cheering and woke with a start.

He zoomed as fast as a rocket towards the finishing line, but it was far too late. The tortoise had already crossed the line.

“It’s not fair!” complained the hare. “I was asleep, we have to do the race again!”

But this time no-one listened to the hare. After that, the hare always reminded himself, “Don’t show-off about your speedy pace. Slow and steady won the race!”

Keep trying, even when things seem hard.
