

Capital Characters

Level 6

Adult Guidance

Cut out the pictures of the characters from the story and laminate. Add them to an activity tray along with some magnetic or foam letters in both upper and lower case or whiteboards and whiteboard pens. Challenge children to spell the names of the characters, using capital letters correctly. You could also add photos of children or adults from the class and ask children to write their names too.

Evidence Gathering

This activity could be carried out in a spelling journal or writing book as evidence for use of capital letters for names and places. You could print the character cards as a smaller size and ask the children to write the names underneath, correctly using capital letters.
