Sight Word Wedding Presents

Say the sight words together as they appear on the wedding present gift tags. Watch out for the sight words many and laughed.

Today, we are learning to read words that contain ue saying /yoo/.

ue can make the same sound as /y/ and /oo/ together, as in 'due'.

Click me for Ben's teaching tips!

When we see u and e as partners, they sometimes make a /yoo/ sound. Let's try and say these together:

“Oh, you look fabulous!” said Mum to a very smart-looking Ben. Ben blushed. “And you look amazing, Sam!” Mum called out as Sam appeared in the kitchen.

“I think we all scrub up well!” laughed Dad.

The family were off to Sue's wedding party. Sue was one of Mum's old school friends. She and her husband had decided to invite lots of guests to party with them in the evening!

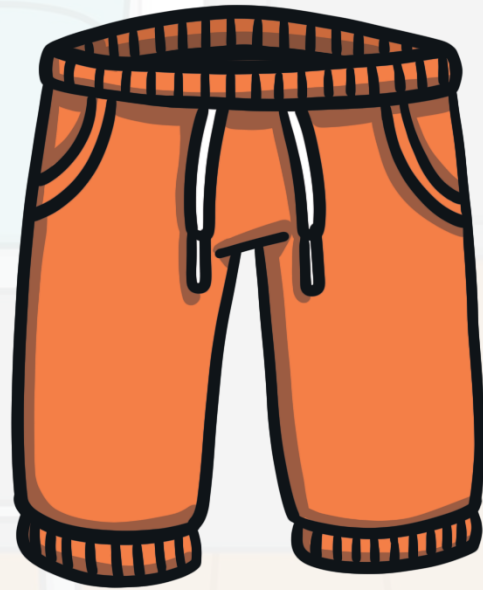

“Do I have to wear this tie?” asked Ben. Ben felt really uncomfortable wearing a shirt and a tie. Dad nodded his head and replied, “Yes, Ben. Just for this evening.”

Ben's Clothes

“We’d better go because we need to stop and get some fuel,” said Dad.

“Just one moment,” Mum said as she dashed out of the kitchen. Mum had gone to get their invitation. She needed to know the address of the venue.

Sentence Time

Ben and Sam are hoping there will be lots of children to make friends with at the party. What do they ask Mum? Read the sentence then click 'Show' to reveal the answer!

On the way to the wedding venue, Mum stopped for some fuel and Dad went to pay. “That is enough. You two are not to argue anymore,” said Mum. Ben and Sam had been arguing in the back of the car about who would give Sue their wedding present.

Once Dad got back in the car, Mum started driving again. After a short journey along some country roads, they had arrived at the wedding venue. "Wow!" exclaimed the children as Mum drove through the huge steel gates.
