More Fun!

Let's practise Sam's Sounds and Sight Words!

Today, we are learning to read and write words that contain ue saying /yoo/ and ue saying /oo/.

Let's practise reading some of this week's focus words and sight words

When Mike and Sue eventually cut the cake, Ben was too full to have any! It was late and all three of the children were really tired. It was way past their usual bedtime.

Ben loosened his tie and Curtis copied him. "Time to relax," said Ben. "Me too!" exclaimed Curtis. "My feet are sore. I am going to take my shoes off," added Sam.

Mike's Speech

The three children sat slumped on the floor while Mike got on the stage to thank all of the guests for coming.

Read his speech and work out what the missing words are.

Sue and I are delighted so many people are with us tonight.

We hope you like this wonderful venue.

You are all true friends.

Thank you!

“Kids, it is time to head home now,” said Mum.
“I see you are all chilling... ties off and shoes, too!” Dad laughed.
“I have no clue how we are going to get them to the car.
They are both nearly asleep!” said Mum. Ben and Sam yawned.

After Mum and Dad had helped them get up, they said goodbye to many of the guests. Once in the car, Ben and Sam soon nodded off to sleep. Mum turned around and looked at them. She laughed when she noticed the wedding present was still on the back seat between them.

The next morning, the family were all in the kitchen talking about last night's fun. Mum looked at the children and said, "Let's make a special book to give to Sue and Mike about their wedding."

Show

We all looked smart for Sue and Mike's wedding. When we got to the venue, many people were not there yet.

Show

We went into the garden and looked at all of the statues.

There were loads of them.

We met Curtis, who is Sue's stepson. He looked a bit like Ben as he had a blue tie on too.

Show

We had fun in the garden hiding behind the statues. Then the band sang lots of jazz songs and people jived to them.

Show

We ate and jived so much that we were worn out! Dad laughed at us chilling without our ties on.

Show

On our way home, Mum laughed when she spotted the wedding present between us. We forgot to bring it from the car into the venue.

“What a lovely book!” said Mum. “We can give it to Sue and Mike with their wedding present.”

“Oh yes, of course!” said Ben and they all laughed.

Today, we have written sentences to write a book together.

Mini Book Printing Instructions
