Cast of Characters

• Narrator • Alexander • Harper • Mom

Part 1

It's a chilly Friday afternoon in October. Alexander has just gotten home from school with his best friend Harper.

Alexander: Hi Mom! Harper is here.

Mom: Hi! How was school today?

Alexander: (looks unsure) It was okay.

Mom: Just okay?

Harper: Alexander gets to be the giant pumpkin. You know... at the fall festival!

Alexander: Yeah, I don't know if I want to do it.

Harper: But...the giant pumpkin has the best job.

Alexander: I know. I get to make little kids smile. But I might get really hot. And I don't want people to laugh at me.

Mom: Alexander, this is exciting! Don't worry, you'll be fine.

Part 2

It is the day of the fall festival. Alexander's mom is helping him get dressed as a pumpkin. They are in their living room.

Mom: This looks great!

Alexander: You think so?

Mom: I see you still feel nervous. It's okay if you don't want to do this!

Narrator: Alexander and his mom hear a knock on the front door. It's Harper.

Harper: Hi Alexander! Are you ready?

Alexander: I still feel nervous. But...I'm also excited!

Harper: I will stay with you during the festival.

Mom: That should make Alexander feel better.

Harper: I promise! I'll hang out with you the whole time. Well, I might go bobbing for apples...

Alexander: Haha. Okay. But really. Promise to stay by me?

Harper: Promise! (Harper and Alexander high five)

Mom: (grabbing her camera) Ok, let's get in the car.

Part 3

Alexander and his mom are home. The fall festival is over. They are sitting at the kitchen table.

Narrator: Alexander and Harper stuck together the whole night. They both had a lot of fun.

Mom: How was it?

Alexander: (smiling) I had so much fun!

Mom: See? Friends can really help us stay brave. You are lucky to have Harper as a friend. And she's lucky to have you!

Alexander: (smiling) Yeah. She's pretty cool.
