When the hospital was clean and warm, Tim's leg started to feel better. Florence told Kit and Sam that Tim would not return to war. He was going home! It was time for Kit and Sam to

Q1: What do you think Grandpa Dada mean by 'You're like Florence Nightingale'?

---

Kit fell and hurt his leg in Grandma Dadi and Grandpa Dada's garden. Sam helped to wash his leg in warm water. "You're like Florence Nightingale," said Dada.

Kit and Sam travelled to meet Florence Nightingale after they remembered learning about her at school. They found Florence on a busy ward and changed their clothes to nurse overalls.

Q5: What did Florence see that made her worry about the hospital being dirty?

Q6: What helped Tim's leg improve?

---

While Florence made sure that the men were warm, Sam and Kit worked hard to clean the ward. It was hard work but it was worth it!

Q3: Why was Tim in the hospital?

Q4: What was Tim's sister called?

---

Q1: What did Kit and Sam change into?

---

A man called Tim was lying on a bed because he had injured his leg in the war. Kit and Sam helped to check a letter that Tim had written to send home to his sister so that she would not worry.

Tim showed Sam a picture of his sister, Elizabeth. Florence had lots of work to do and she worried that the hospital was very dirty after seeing her own hands.
