Sam wanted to perform in the contest with Gabi and had trained a lot. Kit wanted to tell jokes but had not worked on them at all. He was getting grumpier by the day.

Sam was practising while Dad cooked steak for tea. She remembered that there was an interesting letter in her bookbag. It was all about the school talent contest.

Q2: Why was Kit getting grumpier by the day?

After Kit had his chat with Mr Philips, he chose to do what he found easiest. Everyone cheered when they found out who was the luckiest and had won the contest. It was Tess with her flute!

It was finally time for the contest. Sam and Gabi performed then went to watch their friends. All the children were shocked when Kit came on stage. He was playing drums with Mr Philips!

The next day at break, Kit found out that Jake was telling jokes in the contest. All the children thought he was the funniest boy. Kit got very cross. Mr Philips had to have a quiet chat with him and Kit said sorry.

As it got nearer to the show, Sam got more and more worried. Her mum wrote her a note telling her to just try her best. Sam felt much happier.
