

The Three Billy Goats Gruff

In this story, the troll threatens the three Billy Goats Gruff. The biggest goat charges at the troll and knocks him right off the bridge.

Do you think the biggest goat was right to do this?

The Troll's Opinion

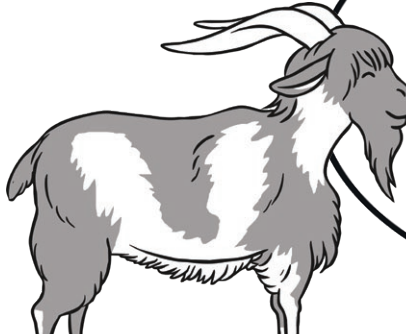

The troll was very upset by the biggest Billy Goat Gruff's actions. He said:

Those annoying Billy Goats Gruff came stamping across the bridge and they woke me up. It gave me such a headache. I was also very hungry. I hadn't found anything to eat for days and goat is just so tasty.

The Biggest Billy Goat Gruff's Opinion

The biggest Billy Goat Gruff had a good reason for his behaviour. He said:

The troll had threatened my brother and my little sister. Then, he said he was going to eat me! In self-defence, I just gave him a small push and he fell off the bridge.

Who do you think is right?

In my opinion, I think that the troll was right to try to eat the goats because he was just trying to survive. He was really hungry and he needed some tasty food. He had already let two smaller goats pass him and I think that he was just following his natural instincts when he saw the biggest, juiciest goat on the bridge.