

Who are these characters? Where have they been?
What is a possible problem they may encounter?
What could happen next?

Where are these characters going?
What could they find inside the cave?
What is a possible problem they may encounter?

What is happening in this picture? Where is this character going? Who might she meet along the way? What is a possible problem that she could encounter?

Who could the characters be in this story?
What possible problems could they encounter?
Where could this story be set?
Why have they chosen this adventure?

What just happened in this story? What could happen next? Why are they dressed this way? What kind of story could this be? What possible problems could these characters encounter?