

Division by Sharing

To divide by sharing.

Tick the expression that matches the problem.

Then, skip count on the number line to find the answer.

There are 10 stickers to share between 2 friends.
How many stickers will they each get?

$10 \div 2$

$10 \div 5$

10×2

Each friend will get stickers.

There are 15 stickers to share between 5 friends.
How many stickers will they each get?

$15 \div 3$

$15 \div 5$

15×5

Each friend will get stickers.

There are 20 stickers to share between 10 friends.
How many stickers will they each get?

$20 \div 2$

10×20

$20 \div 10$

Each friend will get stickers.

Complete the division expression and skip count to find the answer.

There are 14 stickers to share between 2 friends.
How many stickers will they each get?

$14 \div \square$

Each friend will get stickers.

Division by Sharing

To divide by sharing.

Complete the expressions and use the number lines to solve the problems.

Eva wants to share her 16 stickers between 2 books.
How many stickers will go in each book?

$16 \div$

Each book will have stickers.

Elias wants to share his 25 stickers between 5 friends.
How many stickers will each friend get?

$25 \div$

Each child will have stickers.

Eva wants to share her 30 stickers between 10 friends.
How many stickers will each friend get?

$$\square \div \square$$

Each child will have stickers.

Elias wants to share his 22 stickers between 2 books.
How many stickers will go in each book?

$$\square \div \square$$

Each book will have stickers.

Division by Sharing

To divide by sharing.

Complete the calculations and solve the problems using skip counting.

Eva wants to share her 20 stickers between 2 books.
How many will she stick in each book?

$$20 \div \square = \square$$

There will be stickers in each book.

Elias wants to share his 30 stickers between 5 friends.
How many stickers will each friend get?

$$30 \div \square = \square$$

Each child will have stickers.

Eva wants to share her 30 stickers between 10 friends.
How many stickers will they each get?

$$\square \div \square = \square$$

Each friend will have stickers.

Elias wants to share his 26 stickers between 2 books.
How many will he stick in each book?

$$\square \div \square = \square$$

He will stick stickers in each book.

Eva shared her 50 stickers equally between her sticker books.
Each sticker book had 5 stickers stuck in.
How many sticker books does she have?

$$50 \div \square = 5$$

Eva has sticker books.

Division by Sharing Answers

There are 10 stickers to share between 2 friends.
How many stickers will they each get?

$10 \div 2$ ✓

$10 \div 5$

10×2

Each friend will get 5 stickers.

There are 15 stickers to share between 5 friends.
How many stickers will they each get?

$15 \div 3$

$15 \div 5$ ✓

15×5

Each friend will get 3 stickers.

There are 20 stickers to share between 10 friends.
How many stickers will they each get?

$20 \div 2$

10×20

$20 \div 10$ ✓

Each friend will get 2 stickers.

Complete the division expression and skip count to find the answer.

There are 14 stickers to share between 2 friends.
How many stickers will they each get?

$14 \div \boxed{2}$

Each friend will get 7 stickers.

Division by Sharing Answers

Eva wants to share her 16 stickers between 2 books.
How many stickers will go in each book?

$$16 \div 2$$

Each book will have 8 stickers.

Elias wants to share his 25 stickers between 5 friends.
How many stickers will each friend get?

$$25 \div 5$$

Each child will have 5 stickers.

Eva wants to share her 30 stickers between 10 friends.
How many stickers will each friend get?

$$30 \div 10$$

Each child will have 3 stickers.

Elias wants to share his 22 stickers between 2 books.
How many stickers will go in each book?

$$22 \div 2$$

Each book will have 11 stickers.

Division by Sharing Answers

Eva wants to share her 20 stickers between 2 books.
How many will she stick in each book?

$$20 \div 2 = 10$$

There will be 10 stickers in each book.

Elias wants to share his 30 stickers between 5 friends.
How many stickers will each friend get?

$$30 \div 5 = 6$$

Each child will have 6 stickers.

Eva wants to share her 30 stickers between 10 friends.
How many stickers will they each get?

$$30 \div 10 = 3$$

Each friend will have 3 stickers.

Elias wants to share his 26 stickers between 2 books.
How many will he stick in each book?

$$26 \div 2 = 13$$

He will stick 13 stickers in each book.

Eva shared her 50 stickers equally between her sticker books.
Each sticker book had 5 stickers stuck in.
How many sticker books does she have?

$$50 \div 5 = 10$$

Eva has 10 sticker books.