

Types of Sentences

Statements

Statements are sentences which tell you something, like a fact. They should contain a verb, a noun and usually end with a full stop.

Birds have feathers.

Questions

Questions are sentences that ask you something. They usually end with a question mark.

Do you like birds?

Commands

Commands are sentences that tell you to do something. They are found in instructions and start with an imperative verb (bossy word).

Look at that woodpecker.

Exclamations

An exclamation is a sentence beginning with 'What' or 'How'. It is a full sentence, including a verb, which ends with an exclamation mark.

What a lovely bird this is!
