

Forming Adjectives Using the Suffixes -ful and -less.

Words ending in the suffixes -ful and -less are adjectives.

The suffix -ful means having lots of or being full of.

He was helpful
to his sister.

She was
thoughtful.

The suffix -less means the opposite, having none or very little of.

The girl was fearless as she fought the beast.

Most of the time, we can just add the suffixes
to the root words.

care + less = careless

use + ful = useful

But remember some are trickier!

When the word ends in a consonant and a y, we need to change the y to an i then add -full or -less.

beauty - beautiful

pity - pitiful

Forming Adjectives Using the Suffixes -ful and -less.

Words ending in the suffixes -ful and -less are adjectives.

The suffix -ful means having lots of or being full of.

He was helpful
to his sister.

She was
thoughtful.

The suffix -less means the opposite, having none or very little of more or very little of.

The girl was fearless as she fought the beast.

Most of the time, we can just add the suffixes to the root words.

care + less = careless

use + ful = useful

But remember some are trickier!

When the word ends in a consonant and a y, we need to change the y to an i then add -full or -less.

beauty - beautiful

pity - pitiful

