Word Play and Babblement

Roald Dahl liked inventing new words and playing around with language. He often tried to make words funny and interesting!

In Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, some of his most amusing word play is used for the names of the chocolate bars:

WHIPPLE-SRUMPTIOUS

Or insulting terms for the children:

NINCOMPOOP

Example: AROMACHEWS, delicious chewy sweets that smell of roses.

Use the space above to come up with your own weird and wonderful words to describe chocolate or revolting children!
