

Prepositional and Adverbial Phrases

Aim

- To identify prepositional phrases and adverbial phrases
- To distinguish between adverbial and noun phrases.

Prepositions

A preposition is a word that indicates where or when something is in relation to something else.

Examples: across, into, between, above, beyond, towards, behind, over.

A preposition is used to show a relationship between a noun or pronoun in a sentence and another word in the sentence.

Examples:
The apple was under the table.
The glider flew through the air.
The boy walked towards the school.

Which of the following words are prepositions ?

in	to	house	location
travel	walk	inside	tomorrow
visit	mountain	beside	later
journey	upon	off	during

Prepositional Phrases

A prepositional phrase includes the object that the preposition in a sentence is referring to and any other words that link it to the preposition.

For example: He hid beneath the duvet.

A prepositional phrase usually includes a preposition, a noun or pronoun and may include an adjective. It does not include the verb!

Can you pick out the prepositional phrases from these sentences?

The general ordered the troops to retreat to the valley .

Adverbs

Adverbs are best known as being words which give us more information about verbs

For example:

He ran quickly to the gate.

However, they can also be used to moderate adjectives:

He was extremely brave.

- and other adverbs.

He picked it up incredibly carefully.

Which of the following words are adverbs?

quickly

hunted wishing entirely ancient everywhere

nervously

wispy

ferociously

tomorrow

safely

deceive

Adverbial Phrases

Adverbial phrases are two or more words that tell us more about a verb or an adjective.

They appear as a part of a sentence.

They tell us: how, where, when, how long or why.

They do not make sense alone.

Can you pick out the adverbial phrase from each of these sentences and decide what it tells us?

With a smiling face , he accepted the award. Adverbial phrase tells us HOW.

Milo liked to sleep on his master's bed. Adverbial Phrase tells us WHERE.

For eight years , she waited for a rescue ship. Adverbial Phrase tells us HOW LONG.

He would not do a bungee jump because of the danger. Adverbial Phrase tells us WHY.

So What Is the Difference Between a Prepositional Phrase and an Adverbial Phrase?

A prepositional phrase is the overall term for any phrase that includes an object and a preposition (but not a verb).
One type of prepositional phrase is an adverbial phrase .

If a prepositional phrase answers any of these questions: 'Where?' 'When?' 'Why' or 'How', then it is also an adverbial phrase.

preposition

object

He lost it in the castle .

This is a prepositional phrase because it contains a preposition and an object, with no verb. It is also an adverbial phrase because it tells us where he lost it.

Which of These Prepositional Phrases Are Also Adverbial Phrases and Which Are Also Noun Phrases?

Adverbial

Where? When? In what manner? To what extent?

Noun

How many? Which one? What kind?

One fossil from Africa was 400 million years old. Noun phrase.

The markings on the animal were rare and unusual. Noun phrase.

Several people each year are killed by vending machines. A dverbial phrase.

The car sped towards the wall. A dverbial phrase.

He flicked the coins into the pot. A dverbial phase.
