

Fronted Adverbial Jigsaws 2

I S P A C E

Use your super writing skills to create sentences using these fronted adverbials as inspiration in writing your own main clauses. Read the fronted adverbials on the puzzle pieces, then add an appropriate main clause. Make sure that your sentence makes sense as a whole, and that it is written in the correct tense. Don't forget to add the appropriate punctuation!

The first one is done for you as an example.

1. Celebrating his victory, _____ the athlete jumped up onto the Olympic podium.

2. At the end of the rainbow, _____

3. Gasping for air, _____

4. Like a fluffy cloud, _____

5.

Courageously,

6.

Baffled and confused,

7.

Under the sea,

8.

Lifting his arms in delight,

9.

Every so often,

10.

Surprisingly,

11.

In front of the television,	 _____ _____
-----------------------------	---

Challenge: Now write three fronted adverbial sentences of your own that follow the same pattern (fronted adverbial + comma + main clause).

_____ _____	 _____ _____
----------------	---

_____ _____	 _____ _____
----------------	---

_____ _____	 _____ _____
----------------	--

