

Name:

Date:

Grade 3 Grammar and Punctuation Test 6

1. Read the headings below. Match the headings (letters) and the correct sub-headings (numbers). Write just the letter and the number in the boxes.

a	<input type="text" value="It's Over! Peace Declared in Europe"/>	1	<input type="text" value="The sinking of the Titanic"/>
b	<input type="text" value="Tragedy on the High Seas"/>	2	<input type="text" value="Severe flooding in the UK"/>
c	<input type="text" value="How Much More Can We Take?"/>	3	<input type="text" value="The end of World War 2"/>
	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

1 mark

2. Highlight the words in the sentence below which indicate direct speech.

“Come in and sit down quietly,” said the head teacher. “I would like you to tell me exactly what happened this morning.”

1 mark

3. Complete the passage below using the correct article, ‘a’ or ‘an’.

Rachel has just bought new house with old apple tree in the garden.

The house used to be vicarage and has interesting history.

1 mark

total for this page

4. Is this sentence written in indirect or direct speech?

Stop! called the Policeman. Stop, thief!

1 mark

5. Which word class do the words in the table belong to? Tick one box for each word.

Word	Noun	Verb
semicircle submerge television bicycle

1 mark

6. Read the sentence below. Highlight the preposition.

Have you looked under the chest of drawers? Your toy might be there.

1 mark

7. Who is speaking in the past tense? Put a tick.

1 mark

total for this page

8. Look at the letters below. Write them in the correct box according to whether they are a vowel letter or a consonant letter.

1 mark

Vowel Letter	Consonant Letter

b	g
h	i
o	m r	u
e	a

9. Highlight the adjectives in the sentence below.

1 mark

You should check for any sleeping animals before you light a bonfire.

END OF TEST

total for