

Apostrophe Flow Chart

Use this handy flow chart to independently work out whether the word you are writing needs an apostrophe.

Is it a noun?

e.g. cat London Joe

Yes

Do they own something?
e.g. A girl has a ball.

No

Are there any letters missing?
e.g. I am → I'm

Yes

Is there more than one person/thing doing the owning?
e.g. Seven girls
Three cats

No

Don't use an apostrophe

Yes

Use an apostrophe to show where the missing letter(s) would be, e.g. youare → you're

No

Don't use an apostrophe

Yes

Is it an irregular plural noun?
e.g. children
mice

No

Put the apostrophe after the noun but before the 's' e.g. The girl's ball

Yes

Put the apostrophe after the noun and before the 's' e.g. The children's coats

No

Put the apostrophe after the 's' e.g. The cats' whiskers

