

The Very Non-Official Official Report Card

Math

- Can you multiply two digit and two digit numbers?
- Can you multiply with zeroes?
- Can you compare fractions?
- Can you find the missing number in a number sentence? $X = 7 + 35$
- Can you make a pictograph?
- Can you add and subtract money?
- Can you tell time to the second?
- Can you explain what the rule for a pattern would be?
- Can you tell what the pattern would look like at the tenth position?

What would you say about your math skills this term?

Language

- Can you explain what the text features are in a non-fiction text?
- Do you read more than one type of book? (example Bone books)
- Can you understand how point of view helps readers?
- If you find a new word can you predict what it might mean without asking the teacher?
- Can you explain how they help the reader?
- Can you pick an appropriate book and it for more than a minute or two?
- Can you read unfamiliar complicated words?
- Can you read fluently out loud?
- Do you listen appropriately in class?
- Do you participate in class and offer your opinions and ideas?
- If we read a book in class out loud do you listen when you should?

What would you say about your language skills this term?

The Very Non-Official Official Report Card

Responsibility

- Do you always get your homework done?
- Do you do what you say you will?
- Are you able to manage your emotions and your behaviour all of the time?
- Do you always submit your work on google classroom?
- Do you check your email and your work to-do on google classroom?

Independent Work

- Do you listen to instructions the first time? (and follow them)
- Do you complete things and try to meet goals?
- Do you work in class all the time without the teacher having to remind you to focus?
- Do you always submit your work on google classroom?
- Do you check your email and your work to-do on google classroom?

Collaboration

- Do you always seem to be involved in drama?
- Do you accept or become the leader in a group?
- Can you work with your friends without complaining to the teacher and come to a solution?
- Do you talk nicely and kindly to others?
- Can you help to solve problems with your friends in the classroom?
- Will you work with everyone in the class?

Organization

- Are your materials (pencil, pens, books) always organized and neat or are they found around the room?
- Do you clean up after yourself?
- Can you organize your time to get assignments done on time? (or is everything late)
- Is your locker neat?
- When you are doing a project can you find information?

Initiative

- Do you try new things in your learning?
- Do you ask for help when you need it?
- Do you try new things positively or does someone have to talk you into it?
- Do you show curiosity and interest in learning new things?

Self-Regulation

- Can you (and do you) set goals for yourself?
- Do you ask for help from teachers when you need it? (this includes at recess)
- Can you really say what you need to do better at and what you are doing well?
- When you find something hard do you keep going or give up?
- Do you look for ways to make your goals come true?

What would you say about your learning skills this term?