

Pronouns

Part A

Pronouns are words that can be used to replace nouns. There are 7 types altogether but 2 are outlined below.

Personal Pronouns:

- These represent people, places and things.
- I, you, he, she, it, we, you, they (subject), me, you, him, her, it, us, you, them (object).
- e.g. She gave him a piano lesson.

Possessive Pronouns:

- These show ownership and replace possessive noun phrases.
- mine, yours, his, hers, its, ours, yours, theirs
- e.g. The piano is his.

Can you identify 10 examples of these pronouns in chapters 10, 11, 12 and 13?

Pronouns

Part B

Write a paragraph about the story so far. Try to use a range of different pronouns, identifying the different types that you have used.

★ Challenge Task ★

Have a go at rewriting the initial paragraph of Chapter 10 and putting back in all the nouns that have been replaced by pronouns.
