

Using a Dictionary

Find the definitions of the underlined words in each sentence.

1. It would fall from the skies like a hail of deadly meteors – not dropped by some malevolent force from outer space, but spawned in the iron bellies of Hitler's deadly Luftwaffe bombers.

2. Wardens barked orders and pointed instructions at the hordes, but few people paid any attention.

3. He was too preoccupied with scanning the faces that were pouring towards him.

4. He was surprised to see a trio of bewildered dogs cross his path.

5. Like most of the other children, Sam had grown accustomed to the pungent cocktail of rot and decay.

6. The last glow of daylight was too weak to reach into the derelict mill and Sam's footsteps were slow and careful.

7. Carriages already bustled with reluctant children.

8. His finger ran up and down the columns like a rollercoaster carriage until it stopped abruptly.

9. Tom's blue eyes sparkled with enthusiasm.

10. Unsurprisingly, the train journey from York to Scarborough was much more subdued.

Using a Dictionary Answers

Find the definitions of the underlined words in each sentence.

1. It would fall from the skies like a hail of deadly meteors – not dropped by some malevolent force from outer space, but spawned in the iron bellies of Hitler's deadly Luftwaffe bombers.

malevolent – adjective

having or showing a wish to do evil to others

2. Wardens barked orders and pointed instructions at the hordes, but few people paid any attention.

hordes – noun

a large group of people

3. He was too preoccupied with scanning the faces that were pouring towards him.

preoccupied – adjective

to be so absorbed or engrossed in something that all other things are forgotten

4. He was surprised to see a trio of bewildered dogs cross his path.

bewildered – adjective

confused and indecisive; puzzled

5. Like most of the other children, Sam had grown accustomed to the pungent cocktail of rot and decay.

accustomed – adjective

used to something; unsurprised

6. The last glow of daylight was too weak to reach into the derelict mill and Sam's footsteps were slow and careful.

derelict – adjective

in a very poor condition as a result of disuse and neglect

7. Carriages already bustled with reluctant children.

reluctant – adjective

unwilling and hesitant

8. His finger ran up and down the columns like a rollercoaster carriage until it stopped abruptly.

abruptly – adverb

suddenly and unexpectedly

9. Tom's blue eyes sparkled with enthusiasm.

enthusiasm – noun

intense and eager enjoyment, interest, or approval

10. Unsurprisingly, the train journey from York to Scarborough was much more subdued.

subdued – adjective

quiet; unhappy; thoughtful

Using a Dictionary

Find the definitions of the underlined words in each sentence. Use each word in a new sentence.

1. It would fall from the skies like a hail of deadly meteors – not dropped by some malevolent force from outer space, but spawned in the iron bellies of Hitler's deadly Luftwaffe bombers.

2. Wardens barked orders and pointed instructions at the hordes, but few people paid any attention.

3. He was too preoccupied with scanning the faces that were pouring towards him.

4. He was surprised to see a trio of bewildered dogs cross his path.

5. Like most of the other children, Sam had grown accustomed to the pungent cocktail of rot and decay.

6. The last glow of daylight was too weak to reach into the derelict mill and Sam's footsteps were slow and careful.

7. Carriages already bustled with reluctant children.

8. His finger ran up and down the columns like a rollercoaster carriage until it stopped abruptly.

9. Tom's blue eyes sparkled with enthusiasm.

10. Unsurprisingly, the train journey from York to Scarborough was much more subdued.

Using a Dictionary Answers

Find the definitions of the underlined words in each sentence. Use each word in a new sentence.

Accept sentences which use the underlined word appropriately.

1. It would fall from the skies like a hail of deadly meteors – not dropped by some malevolent force from outer space, but spawned in the iron bellies of Hitler's deadly Luftwaffe bombers.

malevolent – adjective

having or showing a wish to do evil to others

2. Wardens barked orders and pointed instructions at the hordes, but few people paid any attention.

hordes – noun

a large group of people

3. He was too preoccupied with scanning the faces that were pouring towards him.

preoccupied – adjective

to be so absorbed or engrossed in something that all other things are forgotten

4. He was surprised to see a trio of bewildered dogs cross his path.

bewildered – adjective

confused and indecisive; puzzled

5. Like most of the other children, Sam had grown accustomed to the pungent cocktail of rot and decay.

accustomed – adjective

used to something; unsurprised

6. The last glow of daylight was too weak to reach into the derelict mill and Sam's footsteps were slow and careful.

derelict – adjective

in a very poor condition as a result of disuse and neglect

7. Carriages already bustled with reluctant children.

reluctant – adjective

unwilling and hesitant

8. His finger ran up and down the columns like a rollercoaster carriage until it stopped abruptly.

abruptly – adverb

suddenly and unexpectedly

9. Tom's blue eyes sparkled with enthusiasm.

enthusiasm – noun

intense and eager enjoyment, interest, or approval

10. Unsurprisingly, the train journey from York to Scarborough was much more subdued.

subdued – adjective

quiet; unhappy; thoughtful