

Environmental Dangers

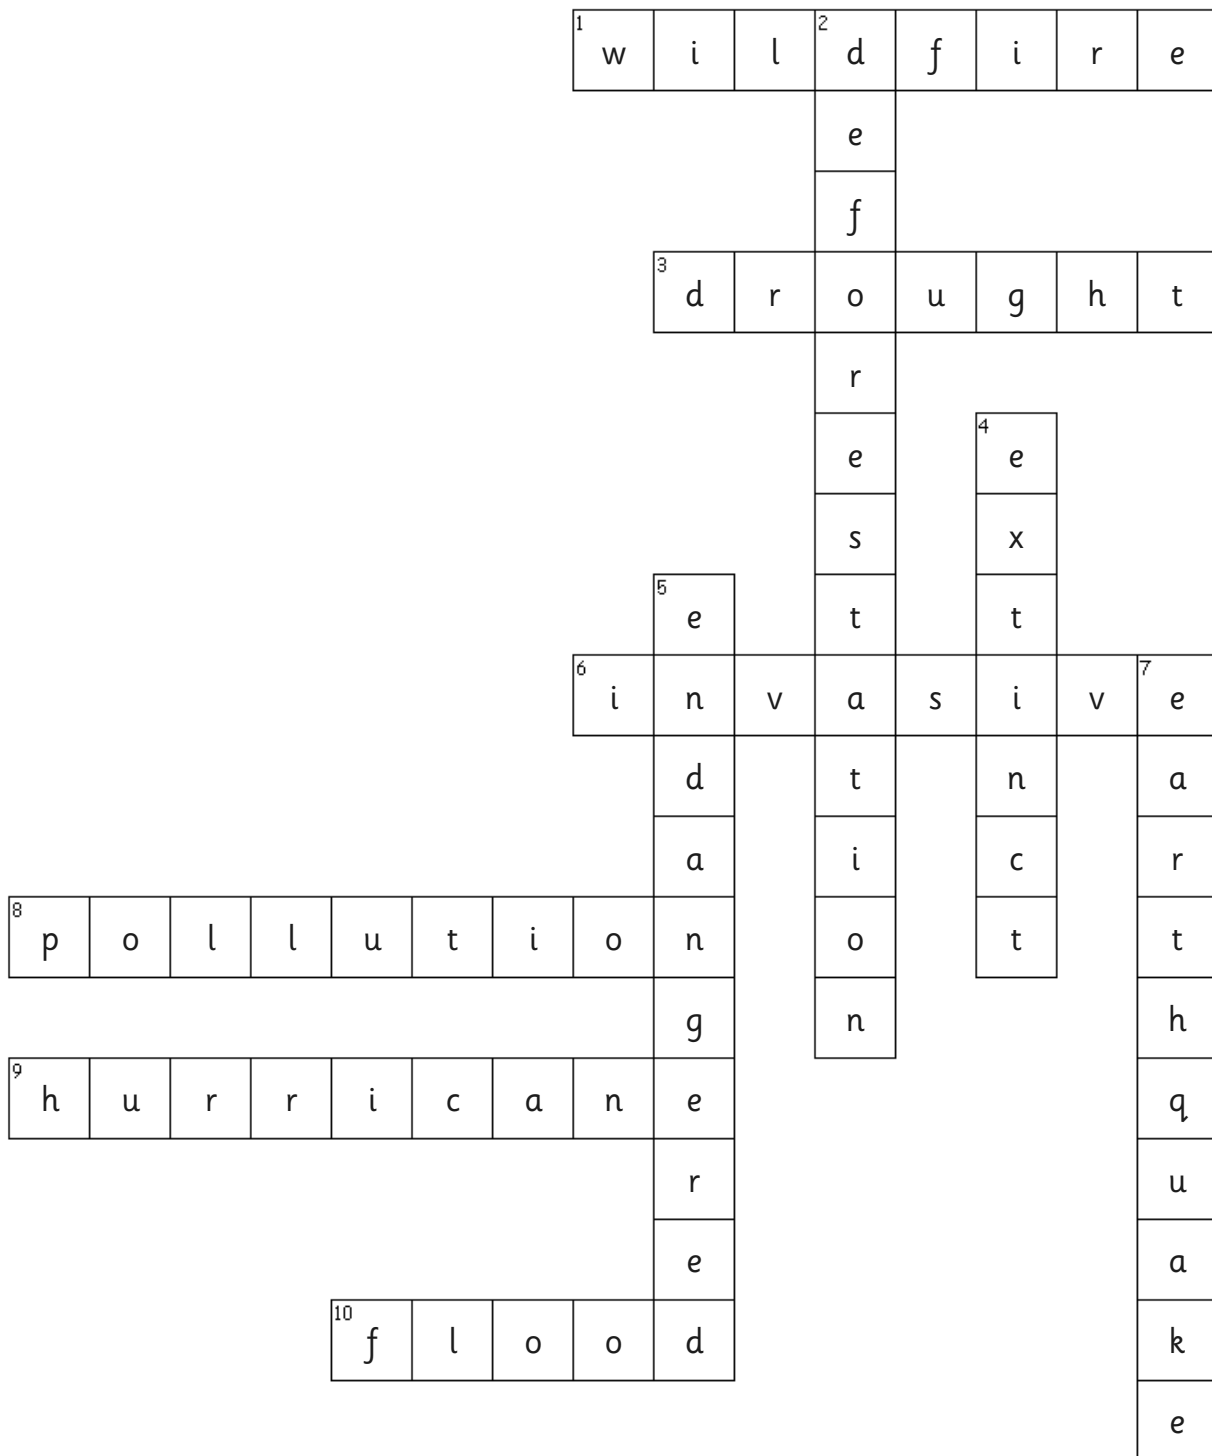

Across

1. These fires can destroy large areas.
3. Too little rain leads to a lack of water.
6. Species that do not belong and can threaten local wildlife.
8. Dangerous chemicals on the land, in the water or the air.
9. A powerful storm.
10. Too much rain causes a dangerous surge of water.

Down

2. Humans cut down large areas of trees to clear land for building and farming.
4. A species that is no longer alive on the earth.
5. A species that is threatened with extinction.
7. Movement of the Earth's tectonic plates causes the surface of the earth to shake.

Environmental Dangers

Across

- These fires can destroy large areas.
- Too little rain leads to a lack of water.
- Species that do not belong and can threaten local wildlife.
- Dangerous chemicals on the land, in the water or the air.
- A powerful storm.
- Too much rain causes a dangerous surge of water.

Down

- Humans cut down large areas of trees to clear land for building and farming.
- A species that is no longer alive on the earth.
- A species that is threatened with extinction.
- Movement of the Earth's tectonic plates causes the surface of the earth to shake.